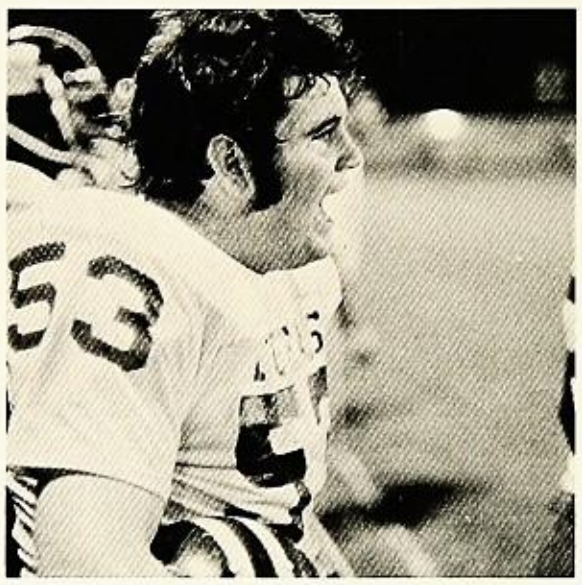
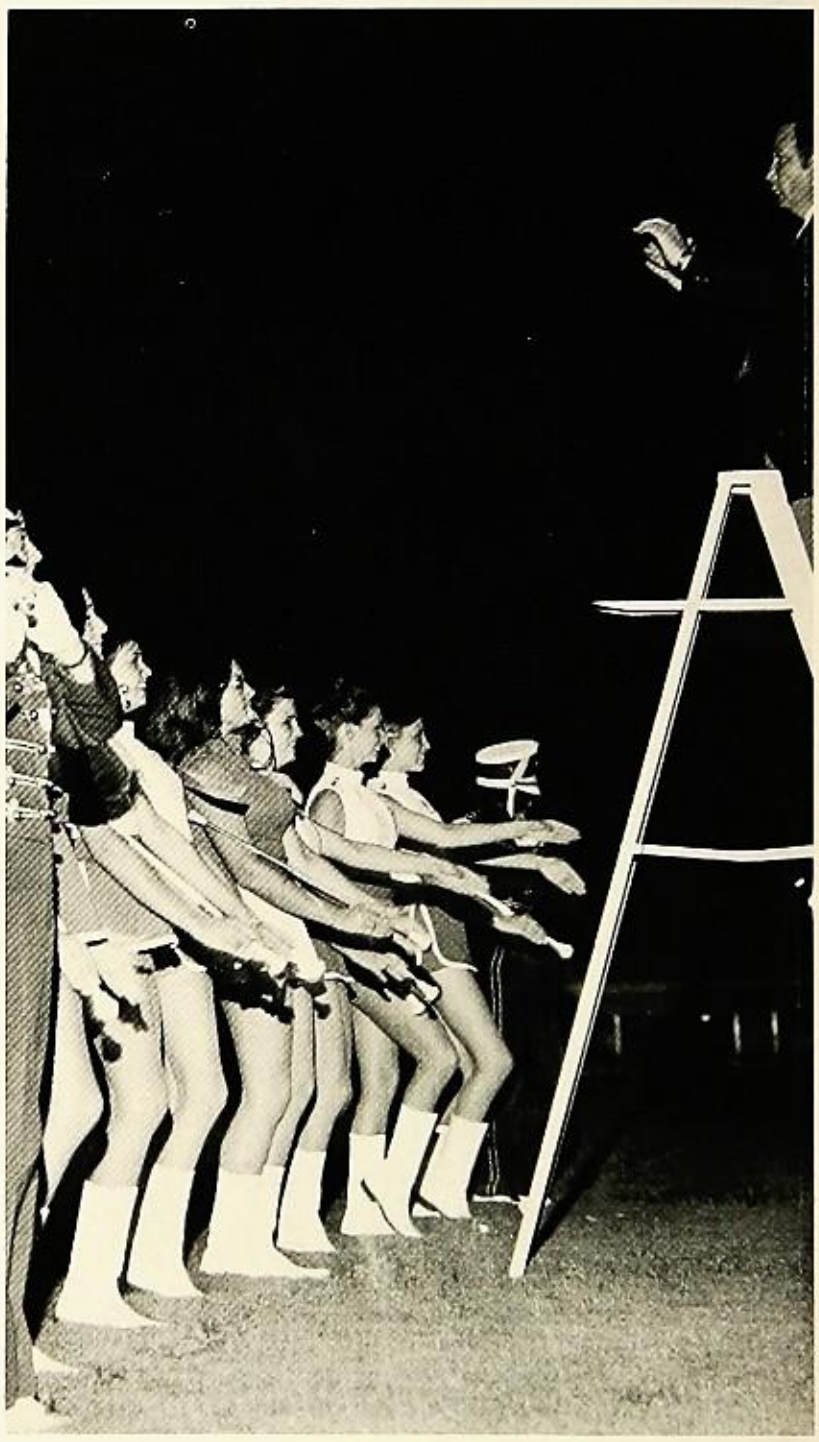
CLARKSVILLE, TEXAS
1974

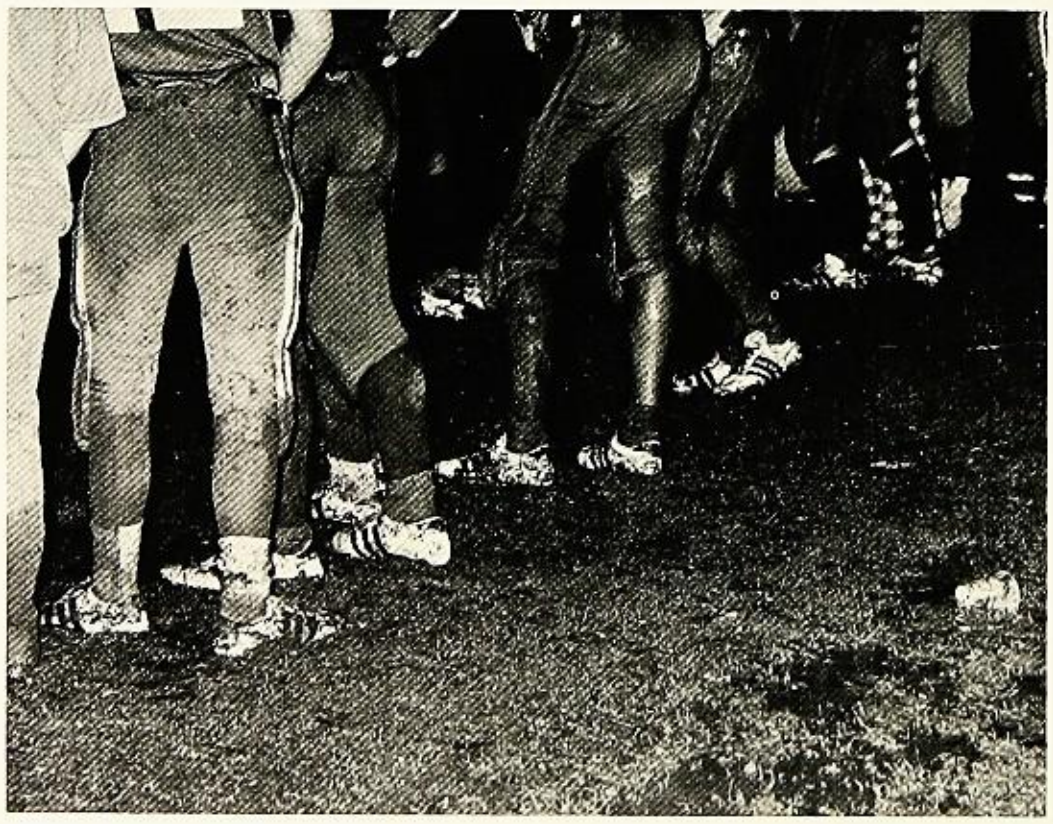
As we struggle to find our true identities, the questions - Who am I? Where is life leading me? What will become of me? - arise before us in our minds, taunting us, filling us with self doubts but also hopes for the future.

Each of us is a singular person, unique and separate in his own way, with the right to "Do his own thing." No one individual is a copy of another. Yet, as each one has fears, desires, and aspirations, so do we all. We must learn to communicate with others, to share their feelings and thoughts, to give of ourselves, to love and to care. It is only through other people that we can find ourselves. By our experiences with other individuals, we expand, build, and mold our own personalities.

With these thoughts in mind, the 1974 TIGER CLAW staff presents - CHS with the focus on STUDENT INVOLVEMENT.







INVOLVEMENT IS PARTICIPATING. It is easy to forget the hours it takes to get a team in shape to play or a band ready to march - Those who participate in sport activities are INVOLVED.

INVOLVEMENT IS HELPING. Peggy and Donna arranged a bulletin board at Christmas time.

INVOLVEMENT IS LOVING. The cheerleaders' mothers have come to expect very little help around the house during football season. To show their appreciation the girls presented corsages to their mothers during a pep rally.

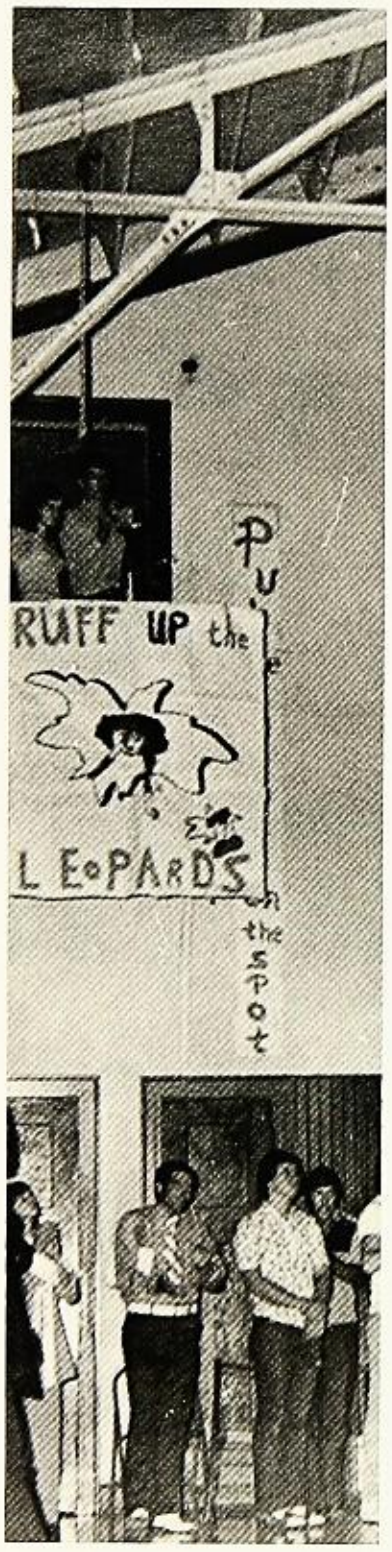
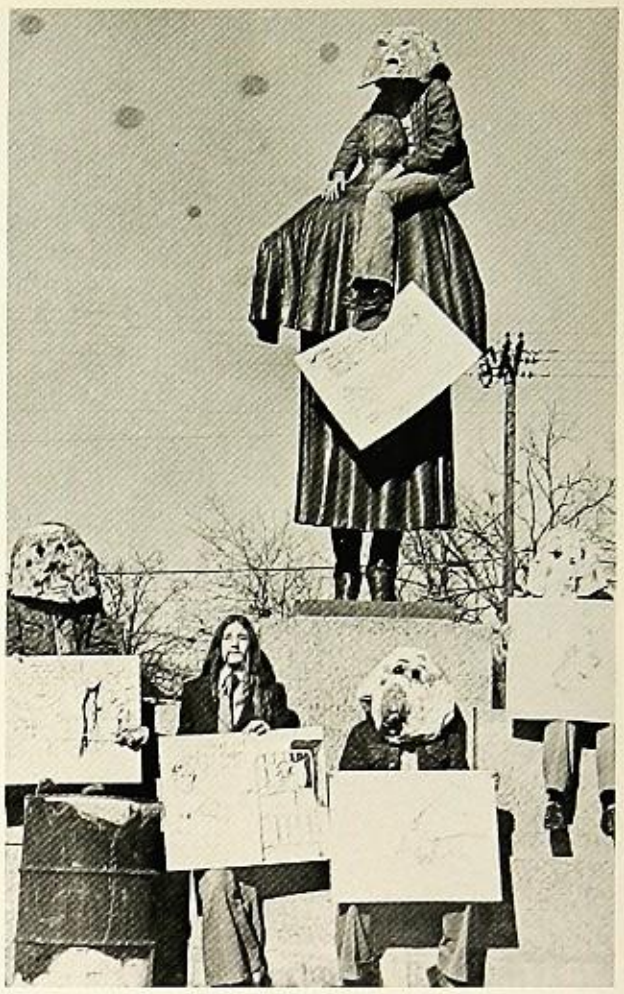
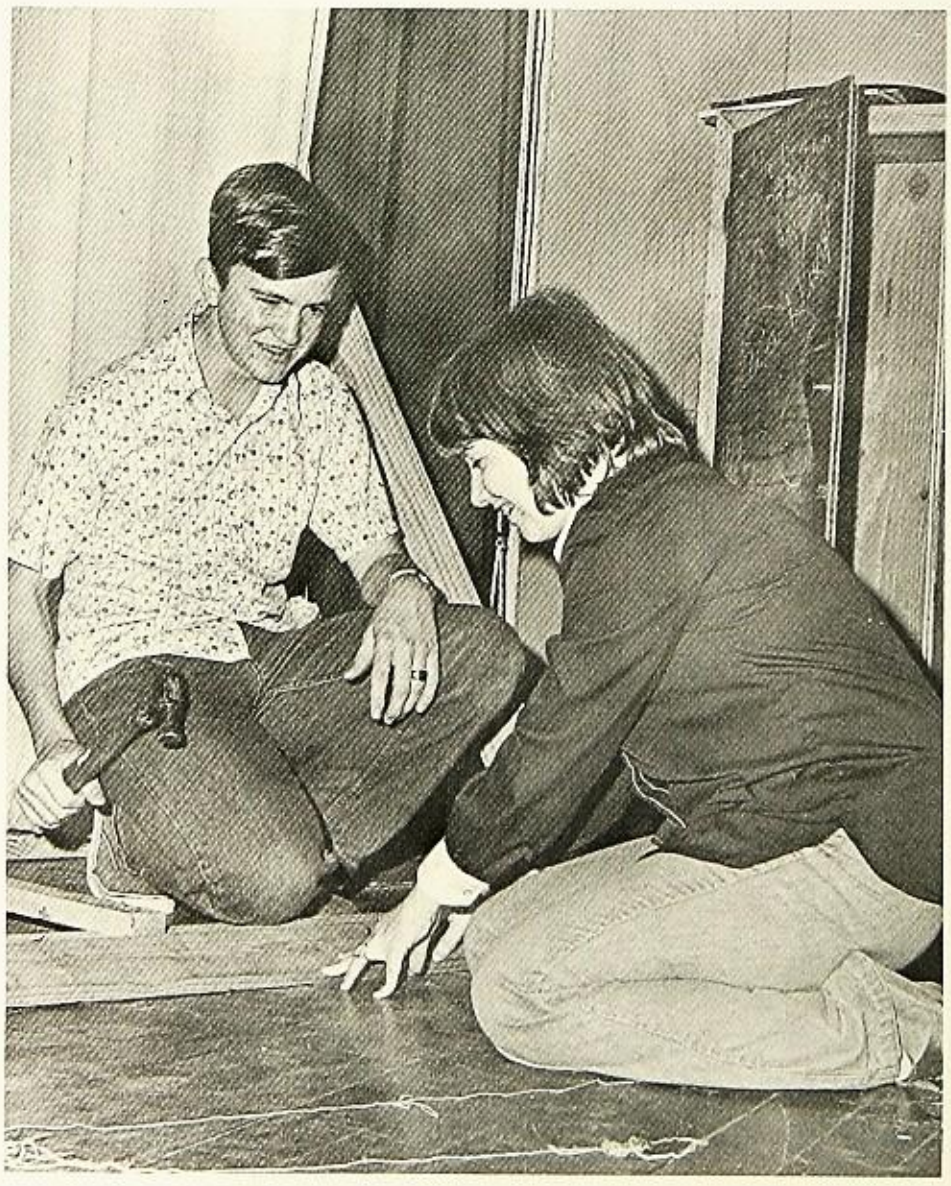
We must learn to communicate with others —



INVOLVEMENT IS LEARNING. Rogena, Jimmy, Kathy and Jaymee presented a parliamentary procedure demonstration for OEA meeting in Longview.



INVOLVEMENT IS DOING. English IV did a project on commercials.

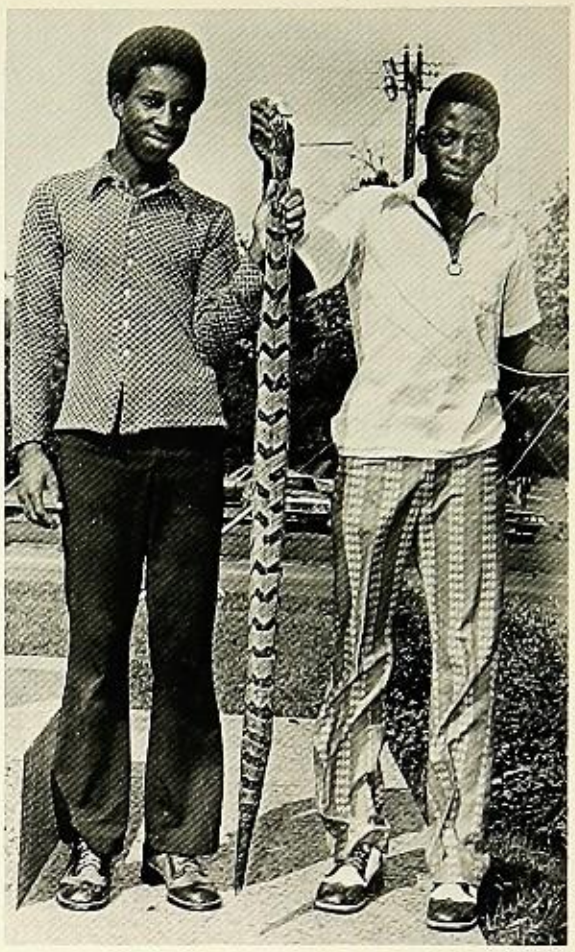


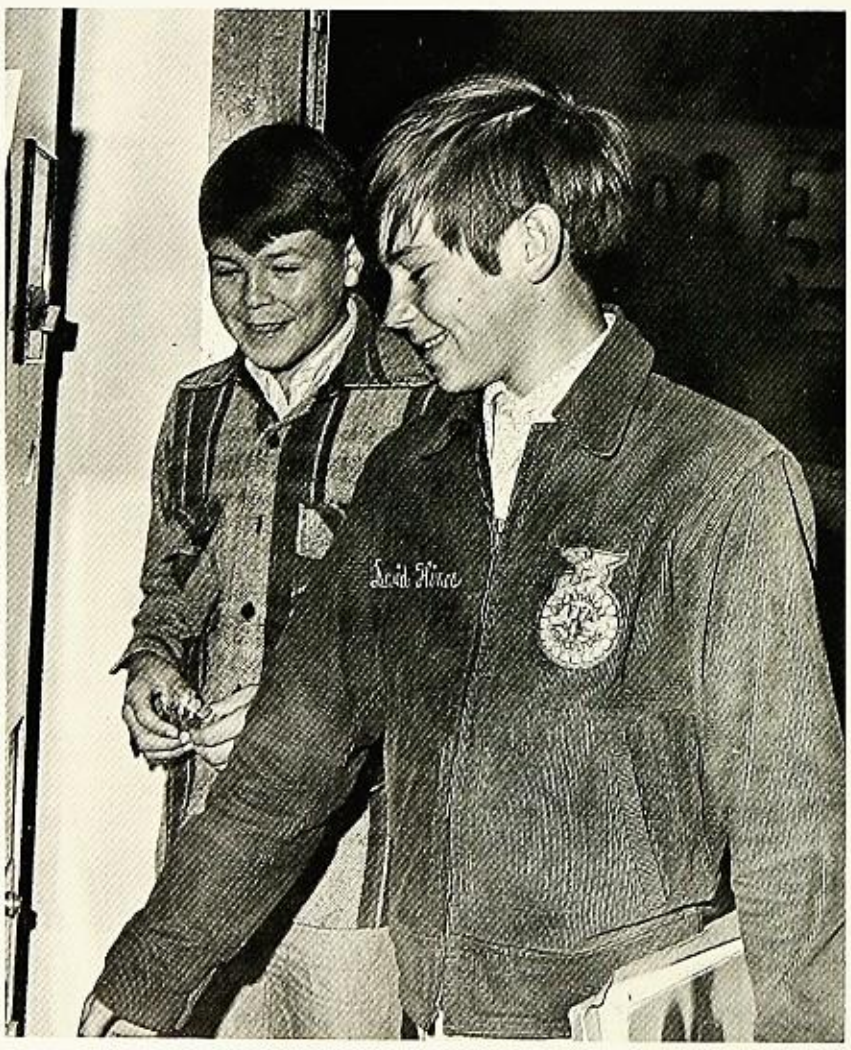
INVOLVEMENT IS HELPING. Stage managers are an important part of play productions. Johnnie Wells and Kathy Butts worked hard to help get everything just right for the One Act Play Festival.

INVOLVEMENT IS HELPING. Sometime a load is too heavy for one; with a friend to share the burden, things are easier.

INVOLVEMENT IS HELPING. Vickie Vaughan gives Debra Lollar's makeup a final touch for the play "To Burn a Witch."

By our experiences with others we expand and mold our own personalities.





INVOLVEMENT IS SHARING. As the high school years are recalled, some of the fondest memories will be time spent with friends.

The State Track Meet in Austin is the highlight of many an athlete's life and so it was for Vernon Vaughan for three laps of the State 3-A mile run. In an apparent unavoidable instant his aspirations of being the 3-A state champion in the mile run disappeared. In close quarters with 330 yards to go Vaughan attempted to move out of the pack and was tripped and fell ending all hopes of placing. After falling he got back up and completed the 330 yards to finish a disappointing eighth after being undefeated in 9 straight meets.

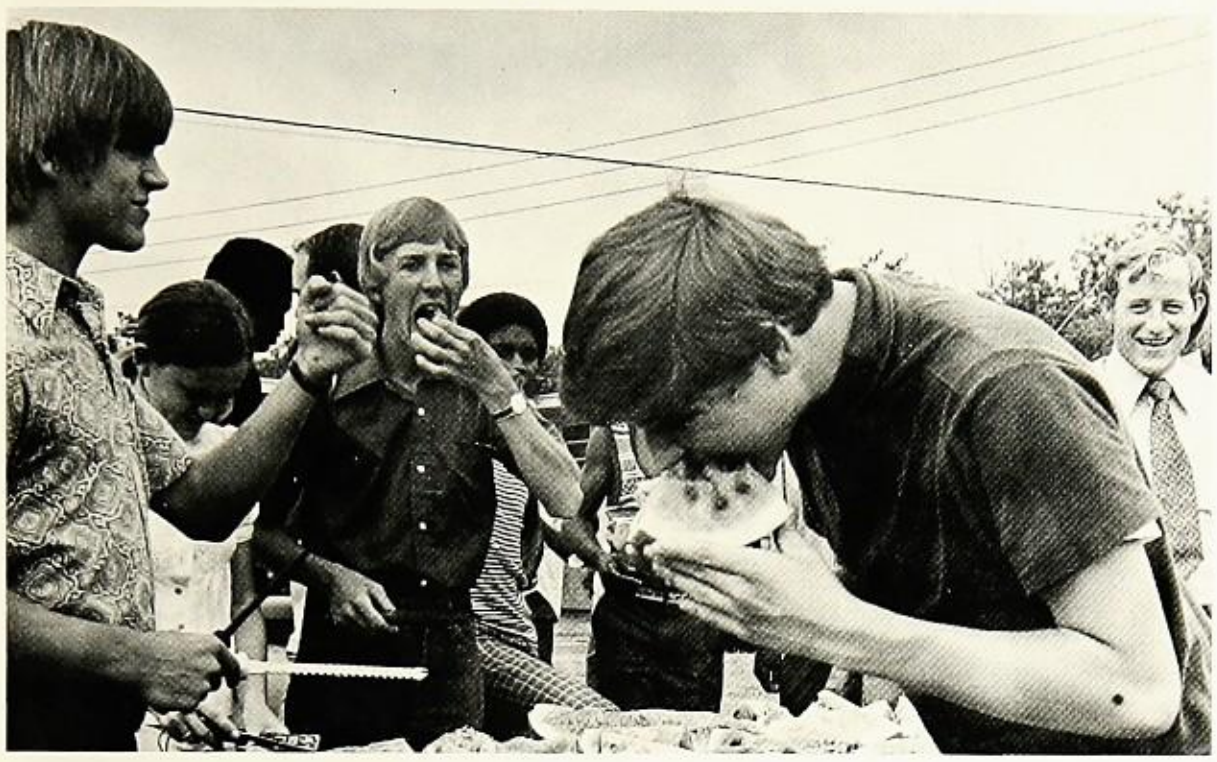
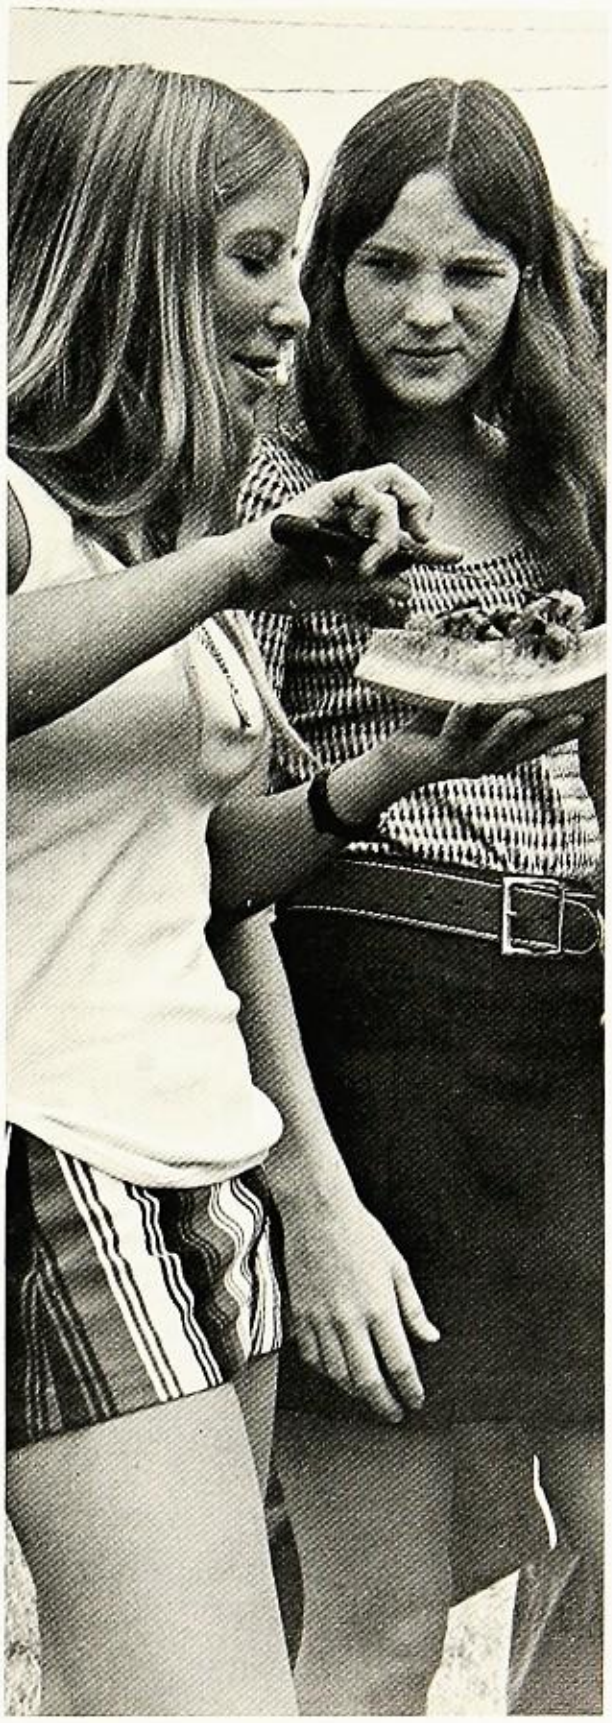
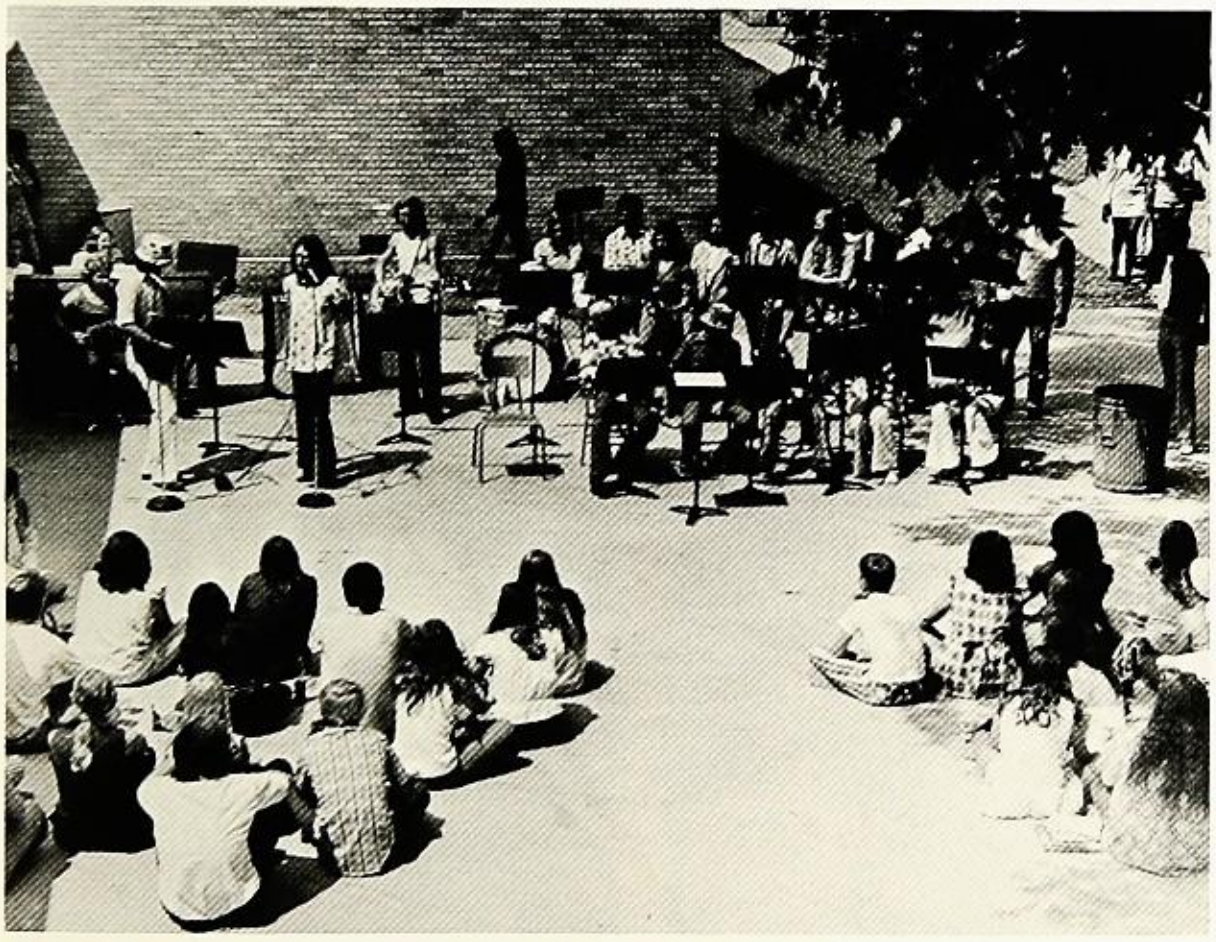
Special Events

School Begins: Watermelons and Concert



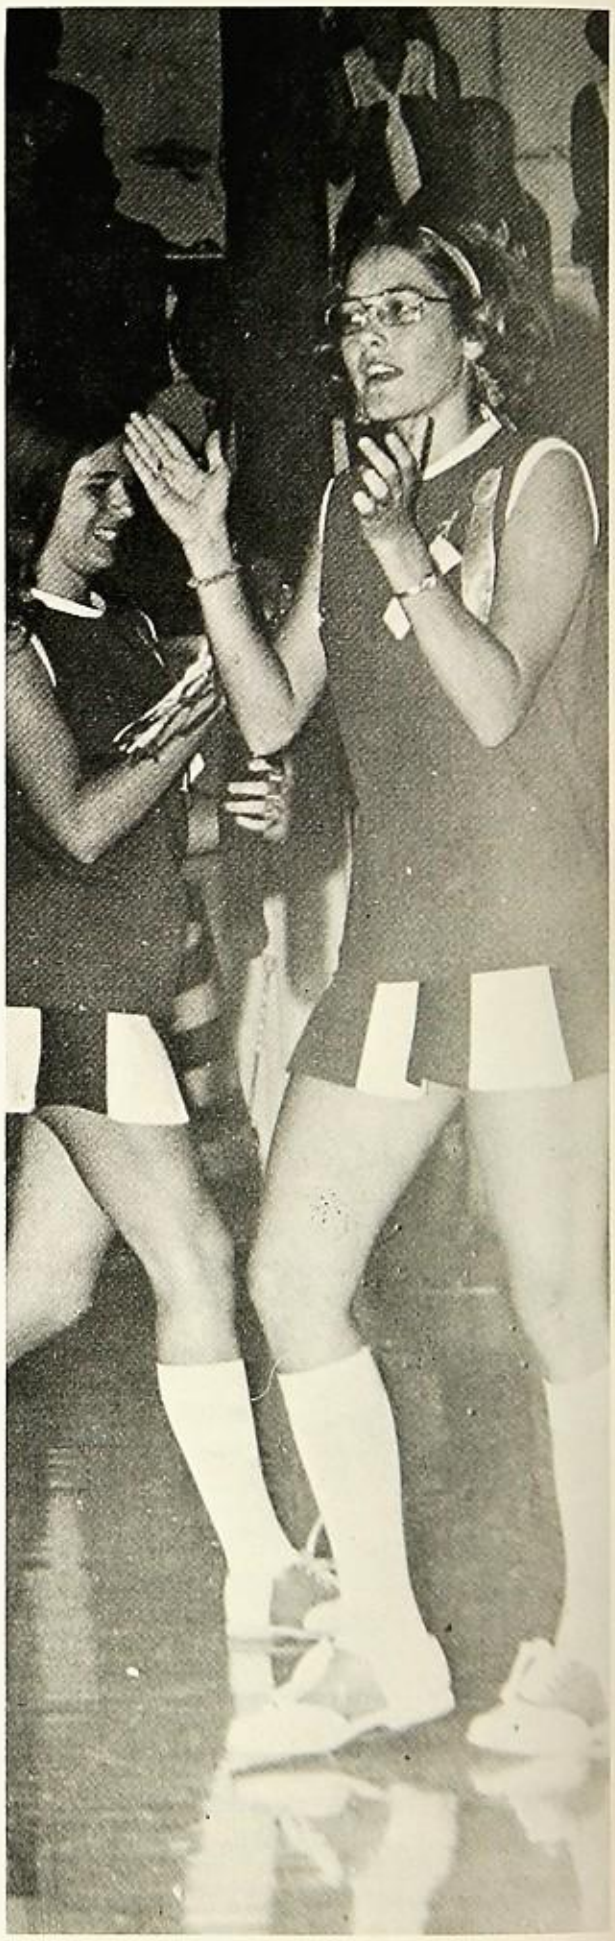




At the watermelon cutting you had a choice of eating with a knife like Vicki or "sticking your head in" like Wayne. The watermelons were furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Jones. The stage band practiced from 7 to 8 a.m. Their first concert was held during the noon hour on the patio.

Football Season: Posters and Pep Rallies

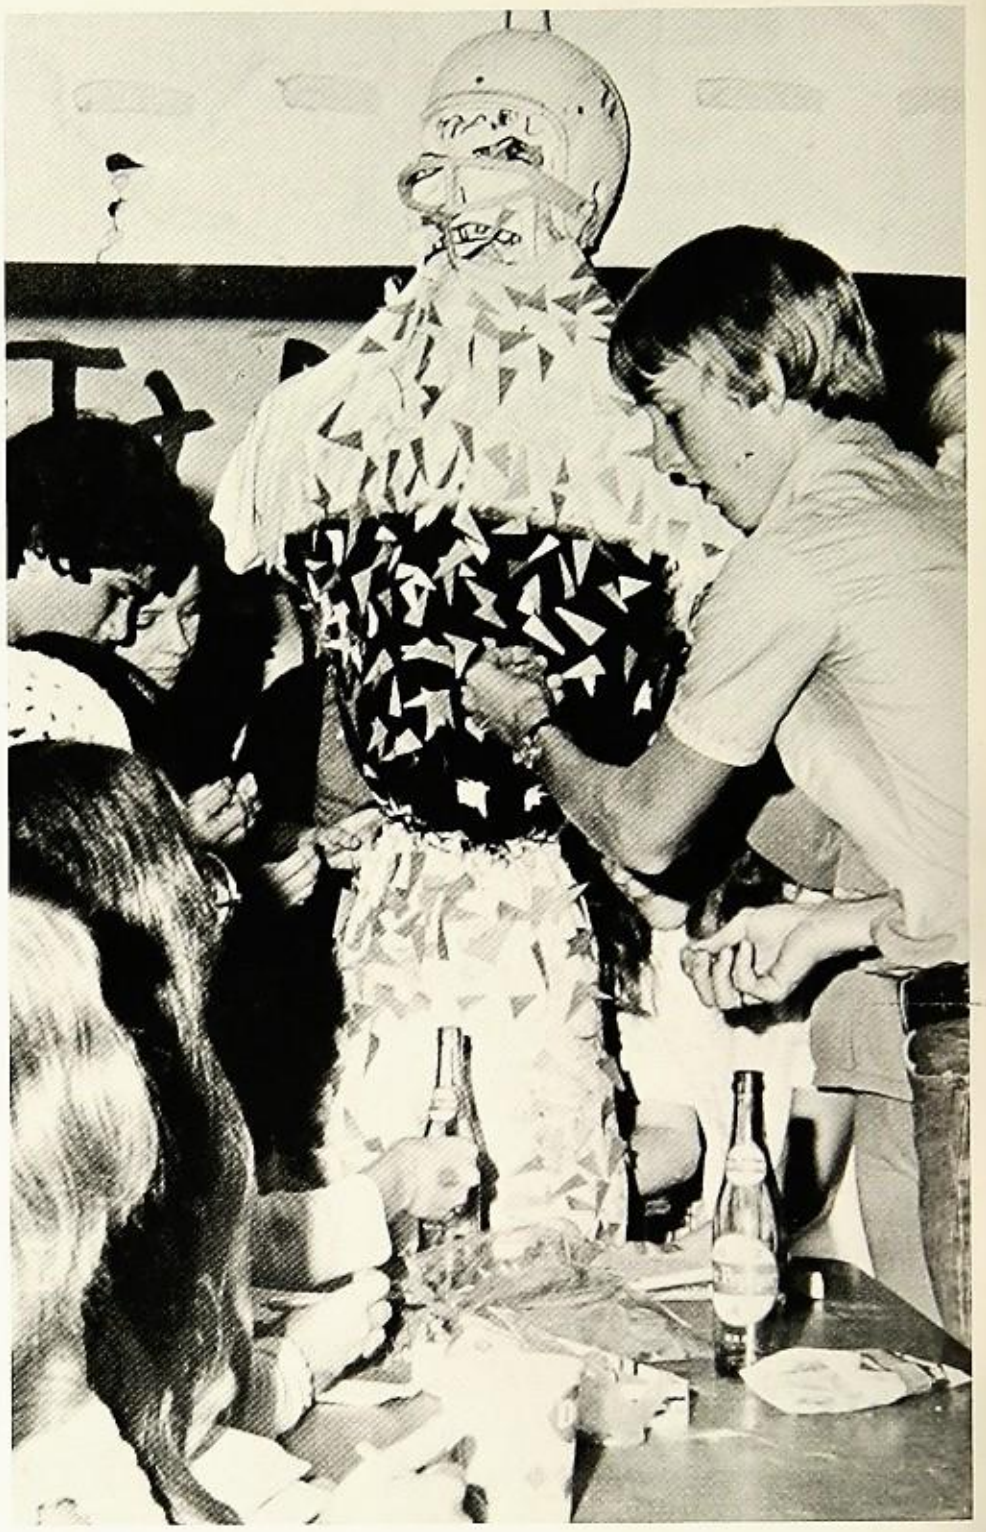
It is a rush on Wednesday after school to get the posters in the lobby and then a rush Friday 6th period to put them in the gym. Cheerleaders, Ann and Debra, had help in the gym from Sandra McGill and Cindy Shields.



As the cheerleaders counted off "25, 26, 27" everyone knew the Tigers had won again.

Speech II class presented a "Blast the Rabbits" skit. J. T. Sweeden (alias Rhonda Rhodes) and Dale Perry (alias Debra Lollar) killed Atlanta Rabbits without any trouble until "Super Rabbit" (Clay Owen) made his appearance.

Coach Puckett encouraged the students to come out and support the Tigers.



The Student Council sponsored a "Spirit Week" which was climaxed with a downtown pep rally. There was a "Hex Mt. Pleasant" day and a "Chain Mt. Pleasant" day. The Freshmen won the Hex and the Sophomores won the Chain. There was also a "Support Your Club" day.

Spirit Week: Hex Mt. Pleasant

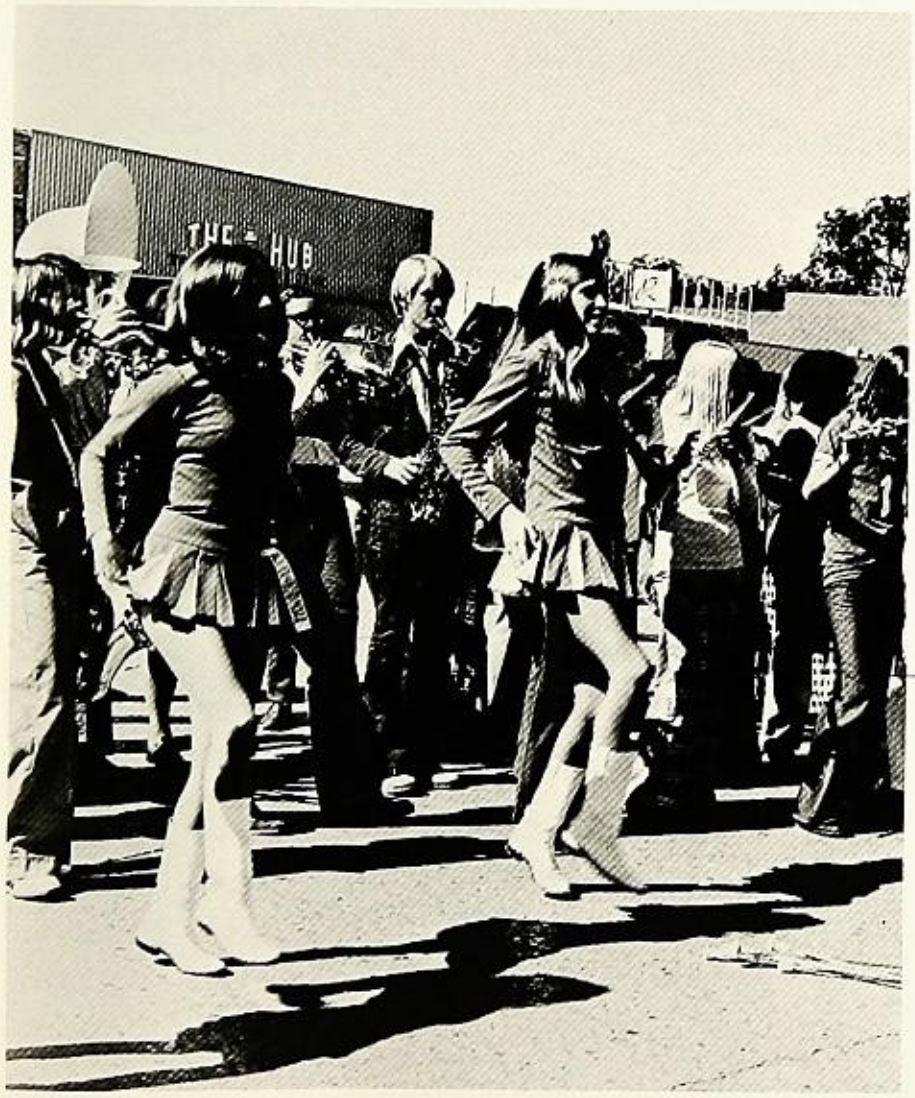
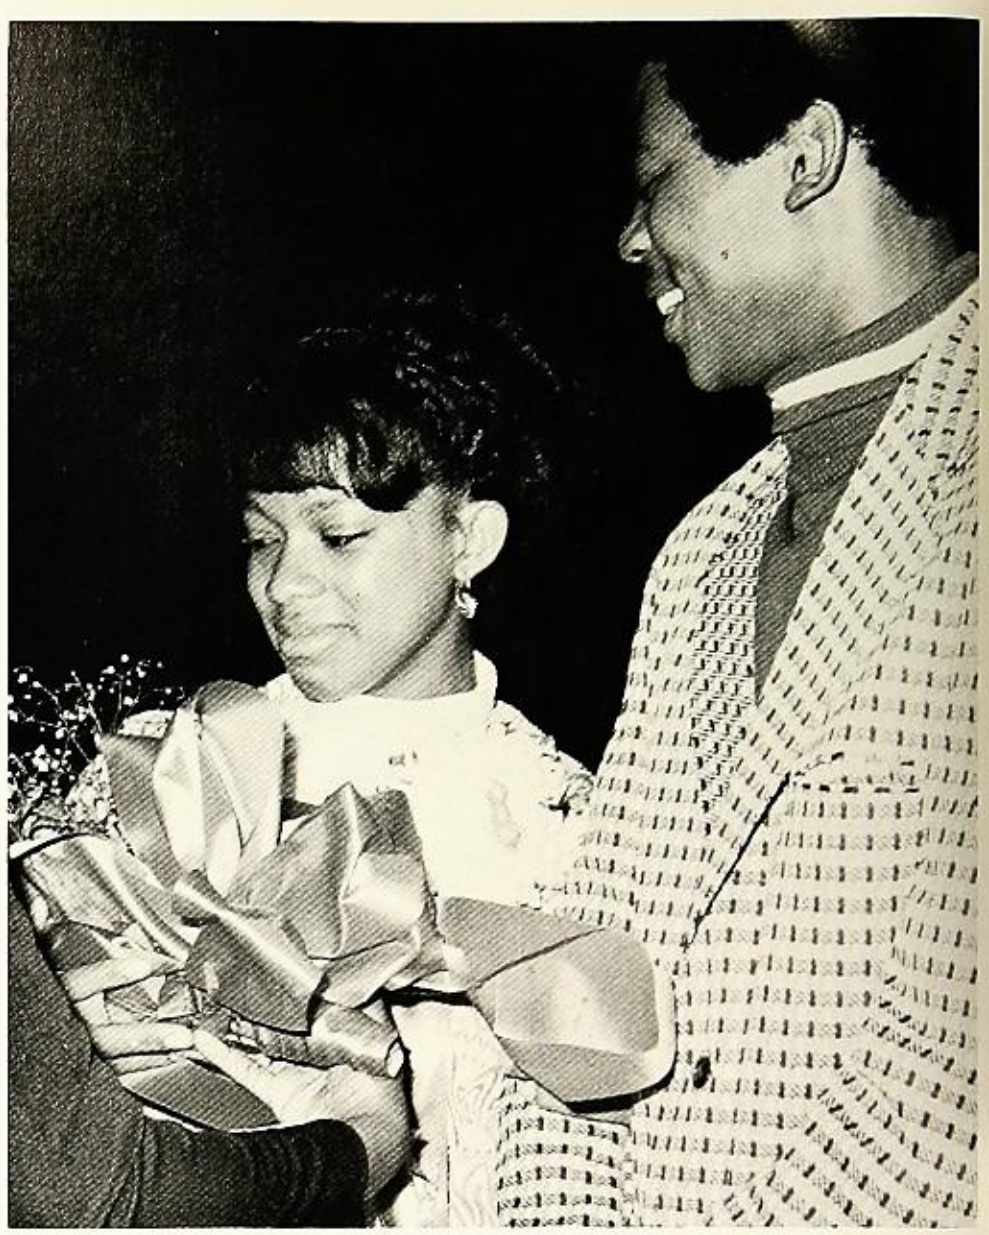
Downtown Pep Rally



A large crowd gathered at the downtown pep rally. The chains were strung around the center of the square and the pin filled dummy was hung from the flag pole.

Homecoming: Queen Wendy Love



In spite of the cold rain and the boggy field, the band and the T-Steppers performed for the 1973 Homecoming ceremonies. Wendy Love was crowned as queen.

Last Pep Rally: Happy Time

The last pep rally is a happy time. It is happy because gifts are exchanged, "thank yous" are said and sweethearts are kissed.

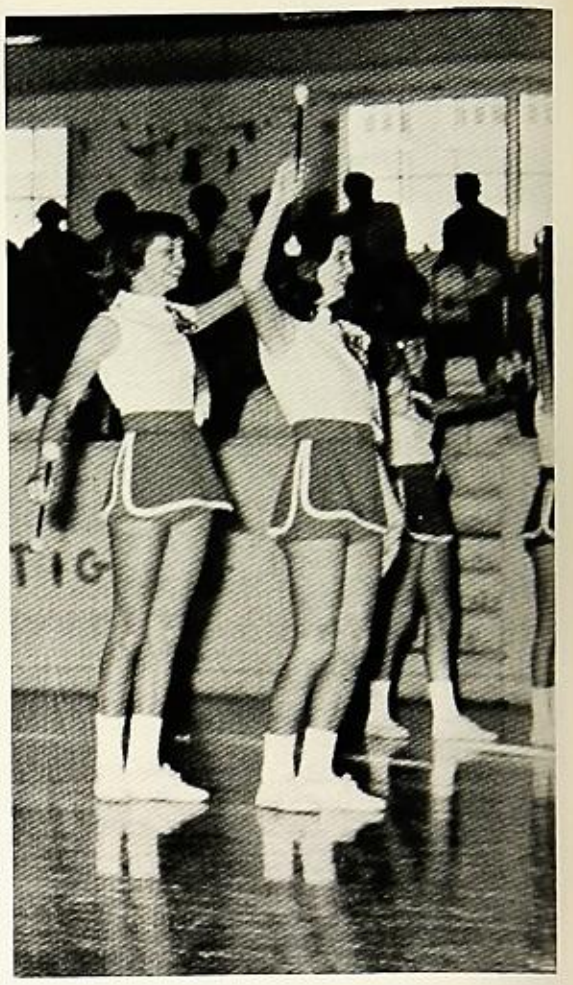
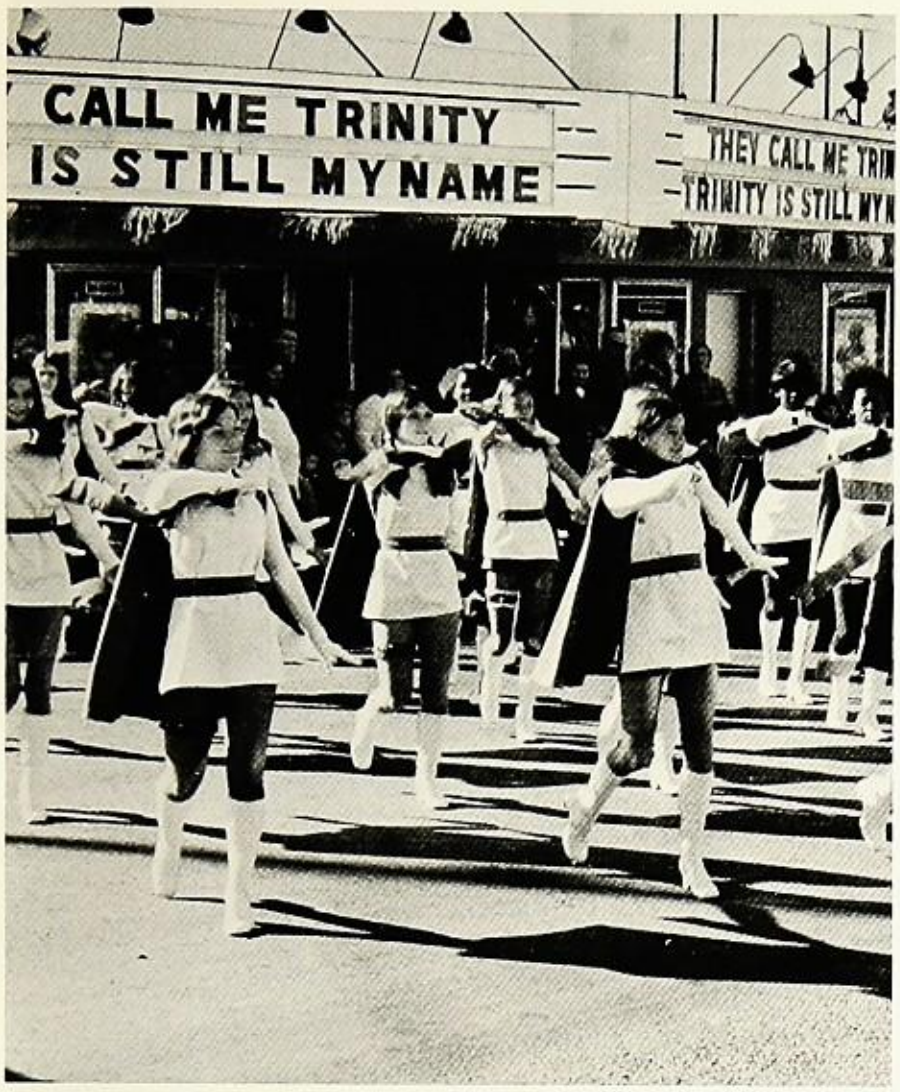
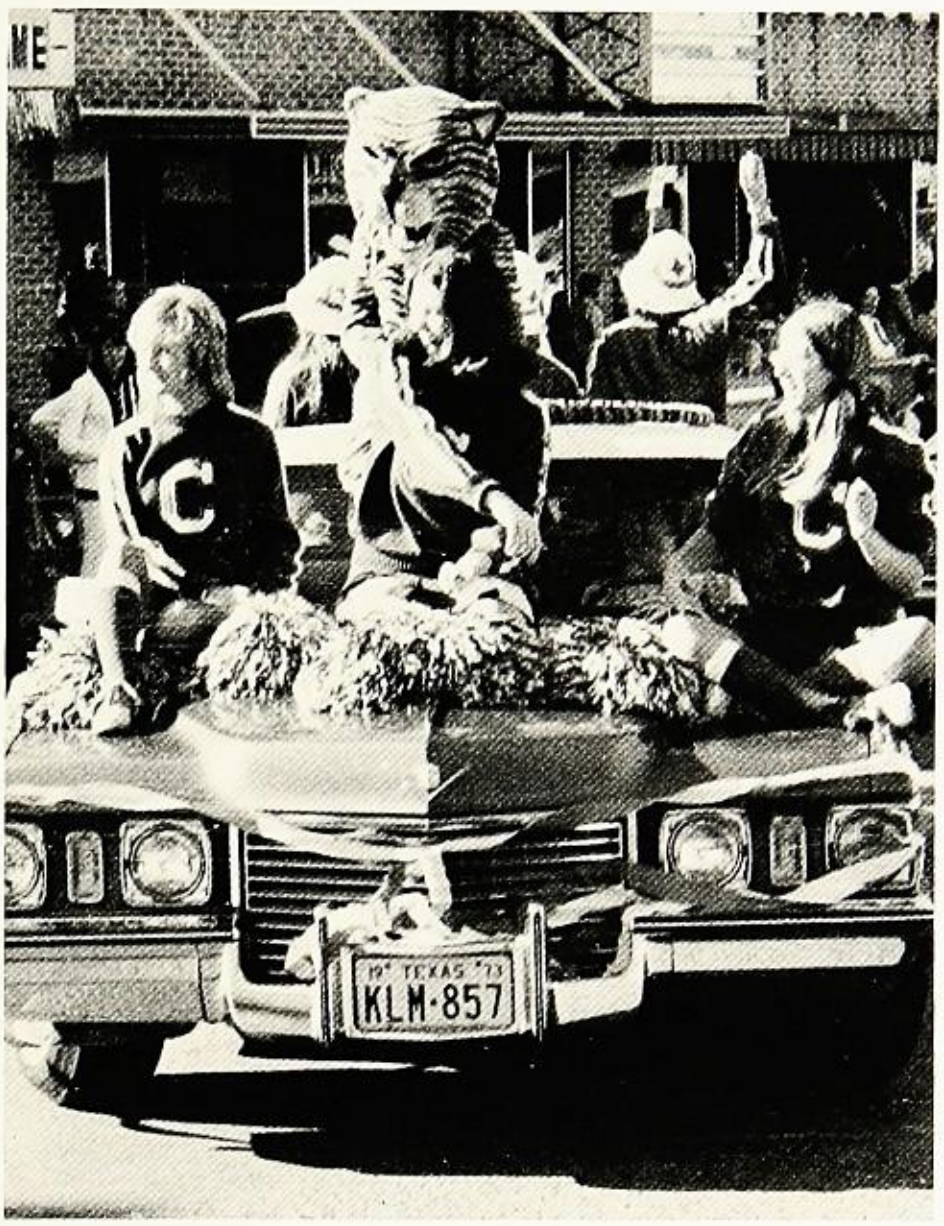
Last Pep Rally: Sad Time



Although the last pep rally is a happy time, it is also sad. This is the last time this year's majorettes, T-Steppers and cheerleaders will perform before a game. As the seniors form their traditional circle, there are tears in many eyes - tears of joy and tears of sadness.

Christmas Parade: Different Time

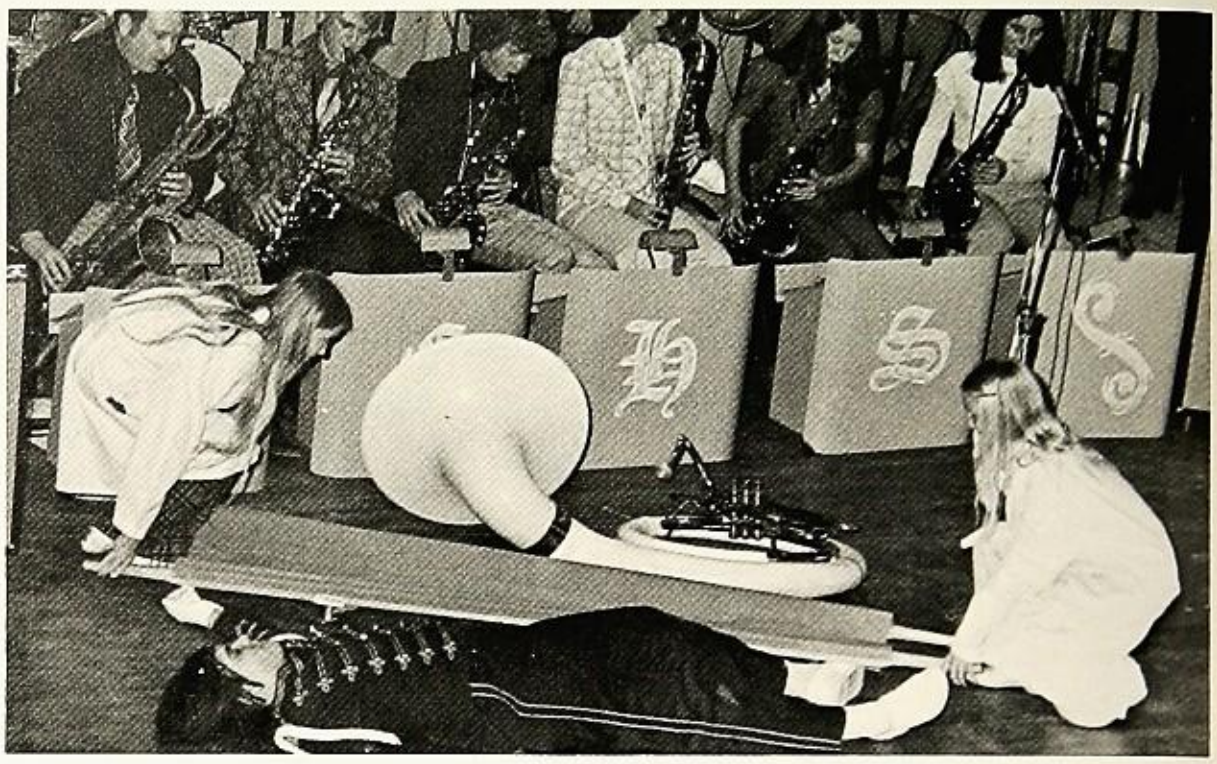




The Christmas Parade was different this year. It was on Saturday morning instead of at night. CHS band, drill team and cheerleaders as well as several clubs participated.

Stage Band Concert: Early Practice Hours; Perfect Show

Terri played a high-class city girl as she sang "King of the Road." The bums were played by the majorettes.

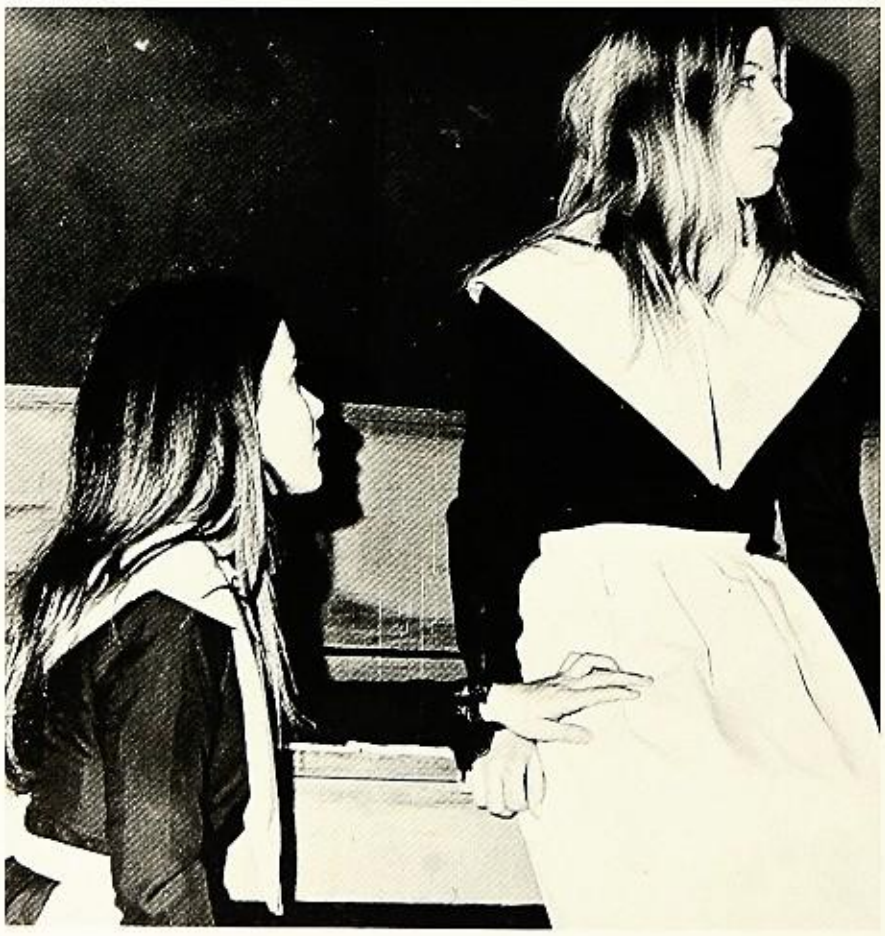


They picked up the tuba and left the player to die.

Dennis and Rhonda played solos.

Mr. Redwine never stopped snapping his fingers.

The majorettes used black lights in one of the routines.



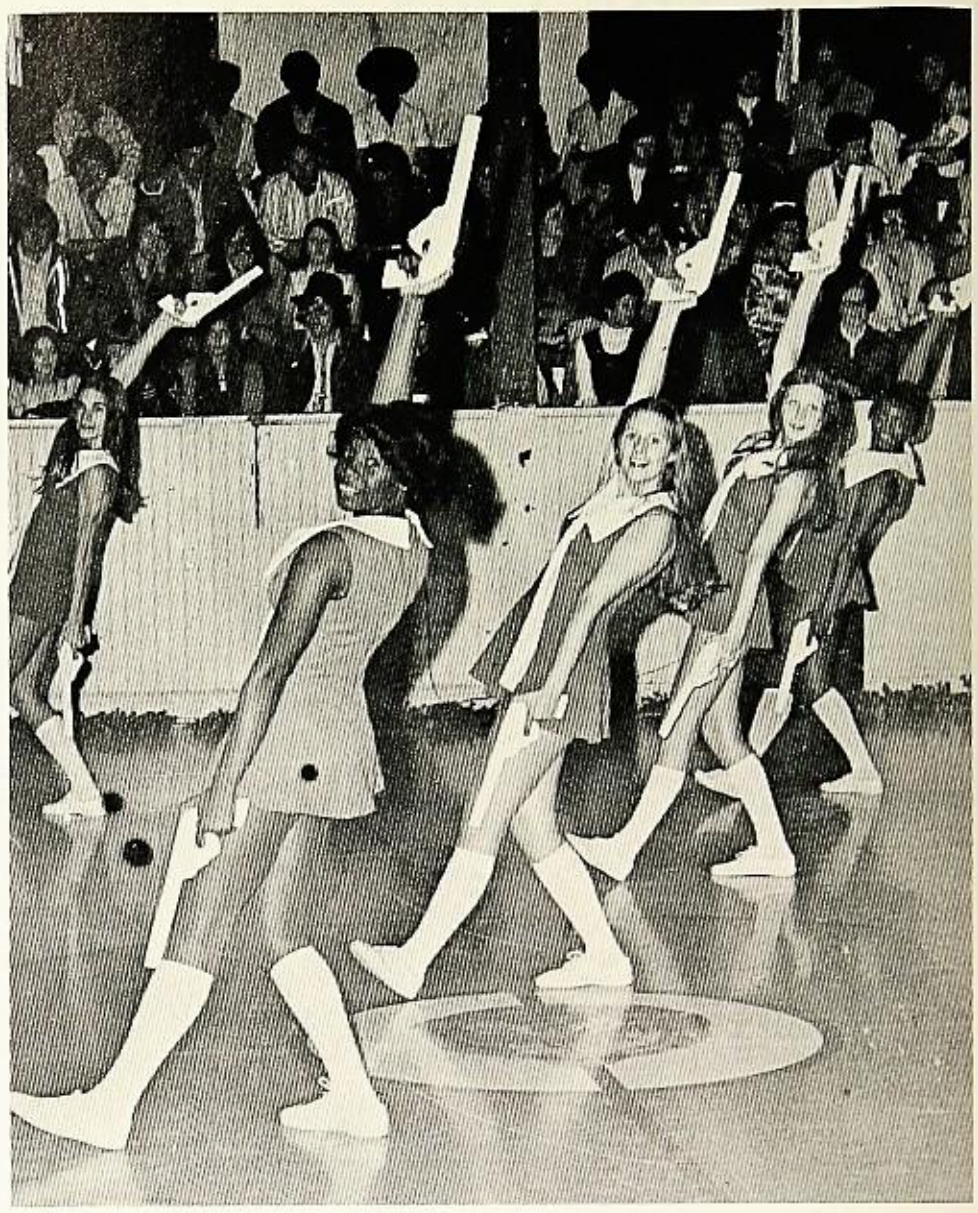
Debra Lollar and Vicki Vaughan in "To Burn A Witch."

Stephanie Lovett and Billy Kay Welch in "Sisters Under the Skin."

A One Act Play Festival was presented by CHS students. The three plays were under the direction of Mr. Doc Reedy. Stage Managers were Johnny Wells and Kathie Butts.

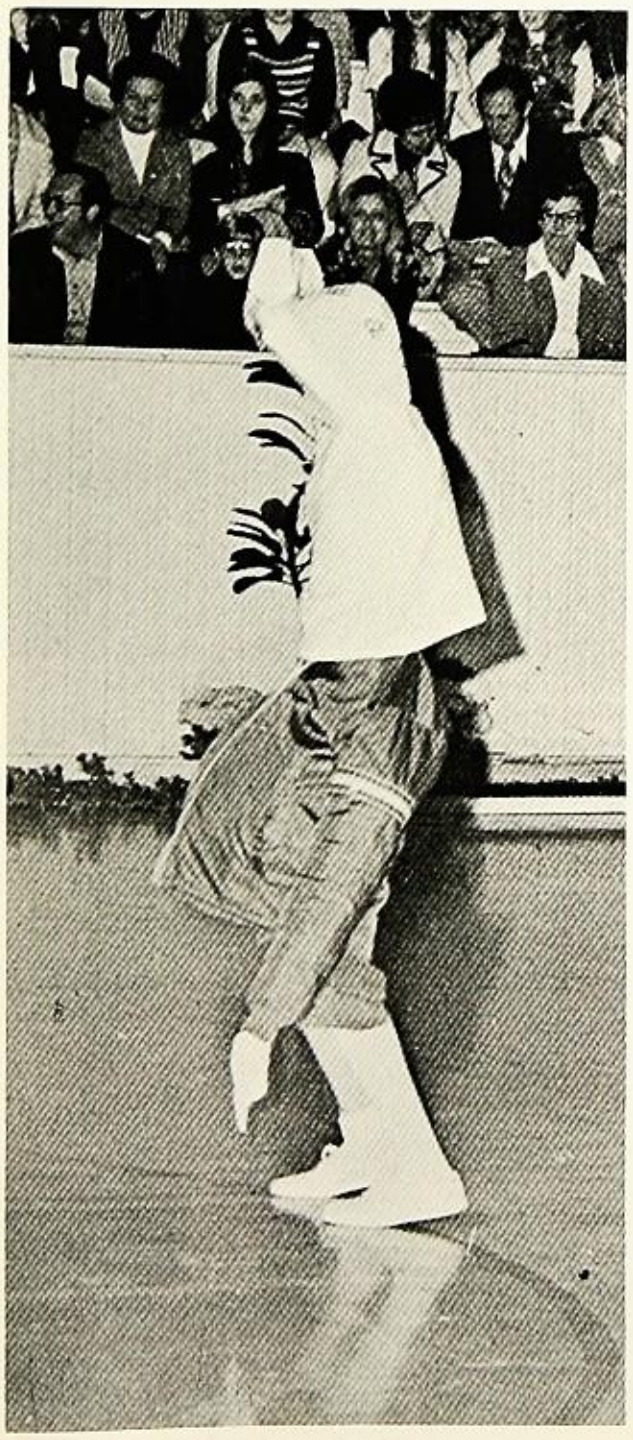
One Act Play Festival: "To Burn A Witch," "Sisters Under the Skin," "Four Frightened Sisters"

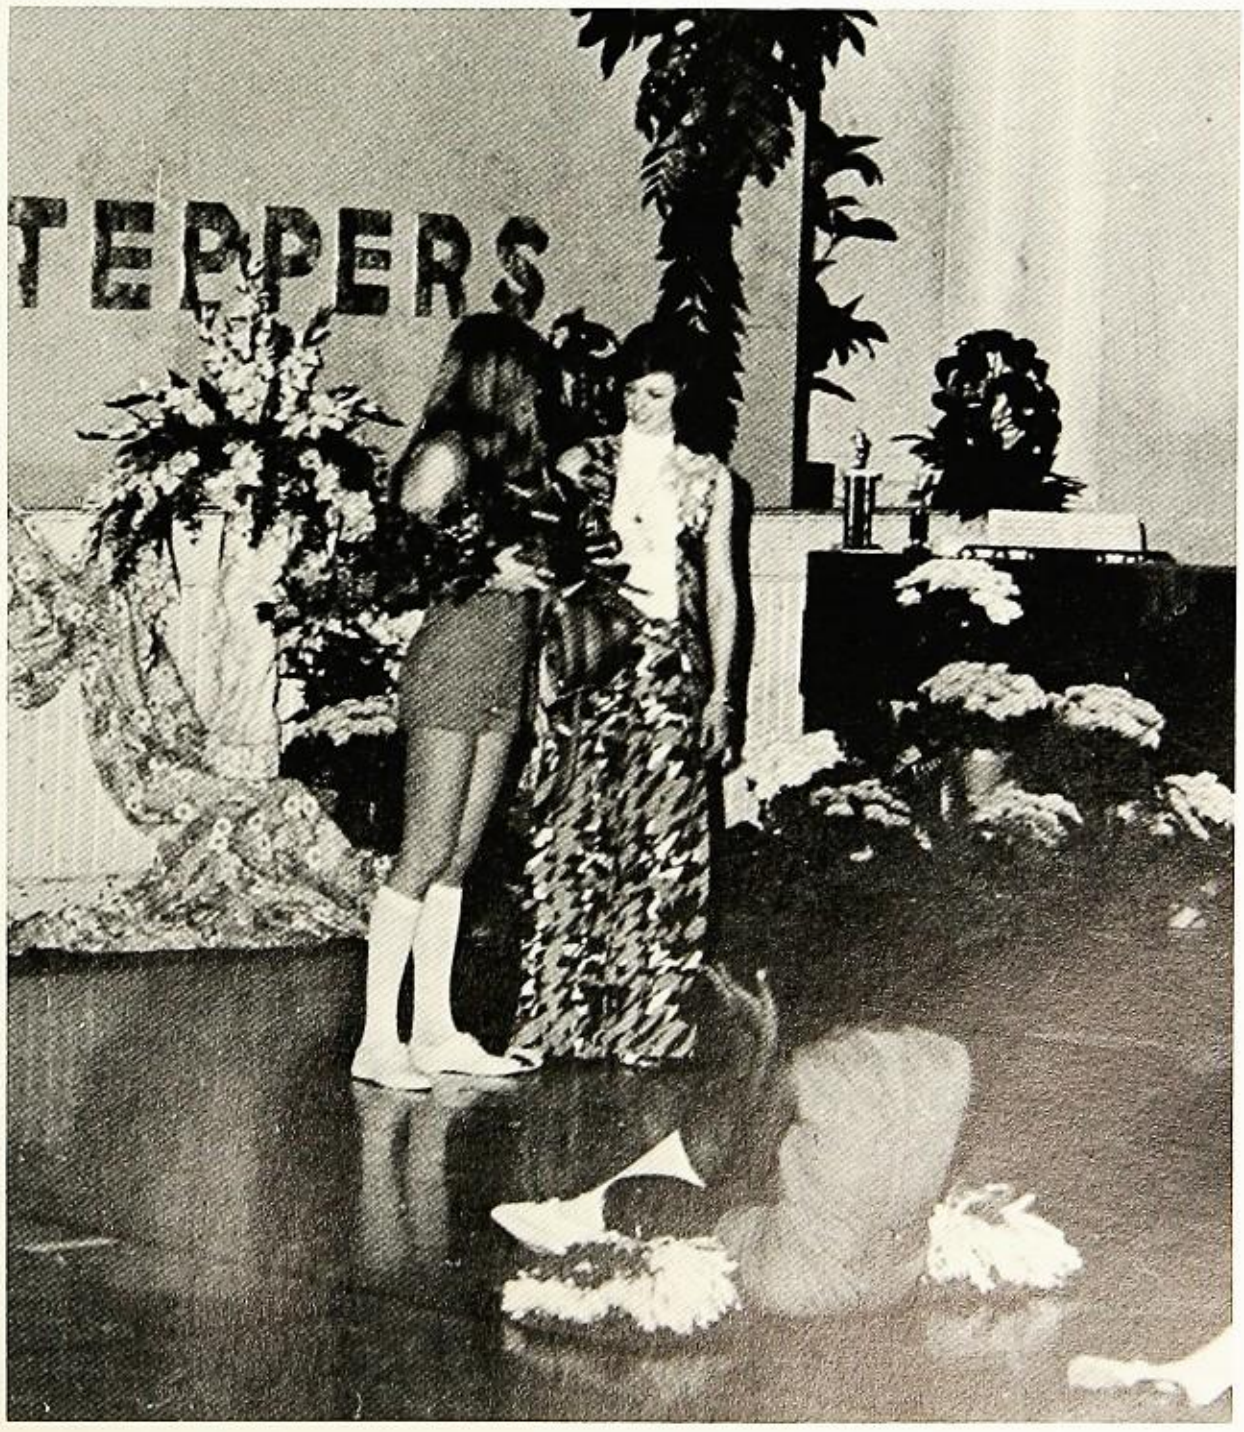
Carla Redwine, Vicki Vaughan, Debra Lollar, and Janet Kelty in "Four Frightened Sisters."

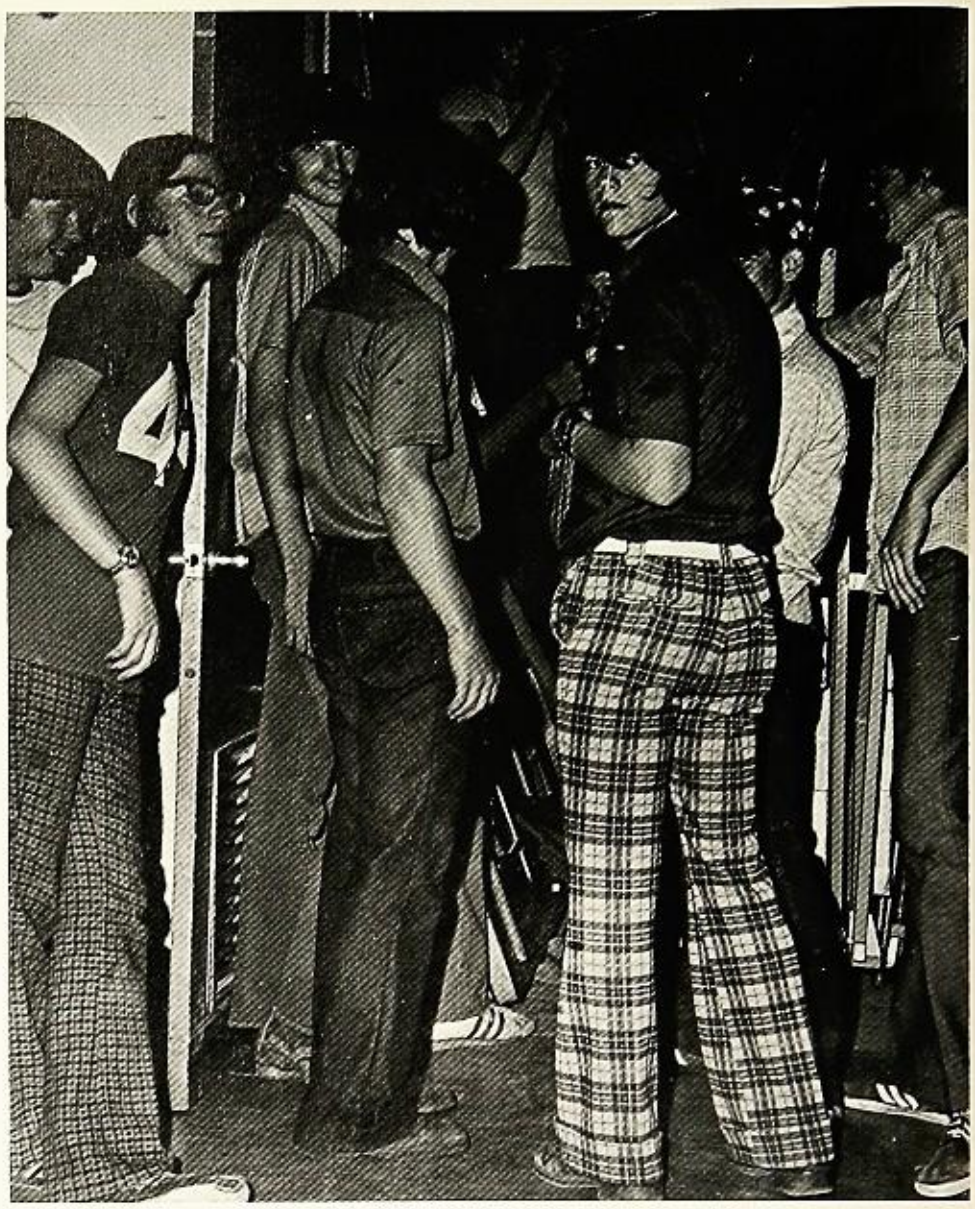


The T-Stepper's Revue was a rousing success. Many parents, students, and friends had spent endless hours in getting it together. Every minute was enjoyed by the capacity filled gym.

T-Steppers Revue: Rousing Success

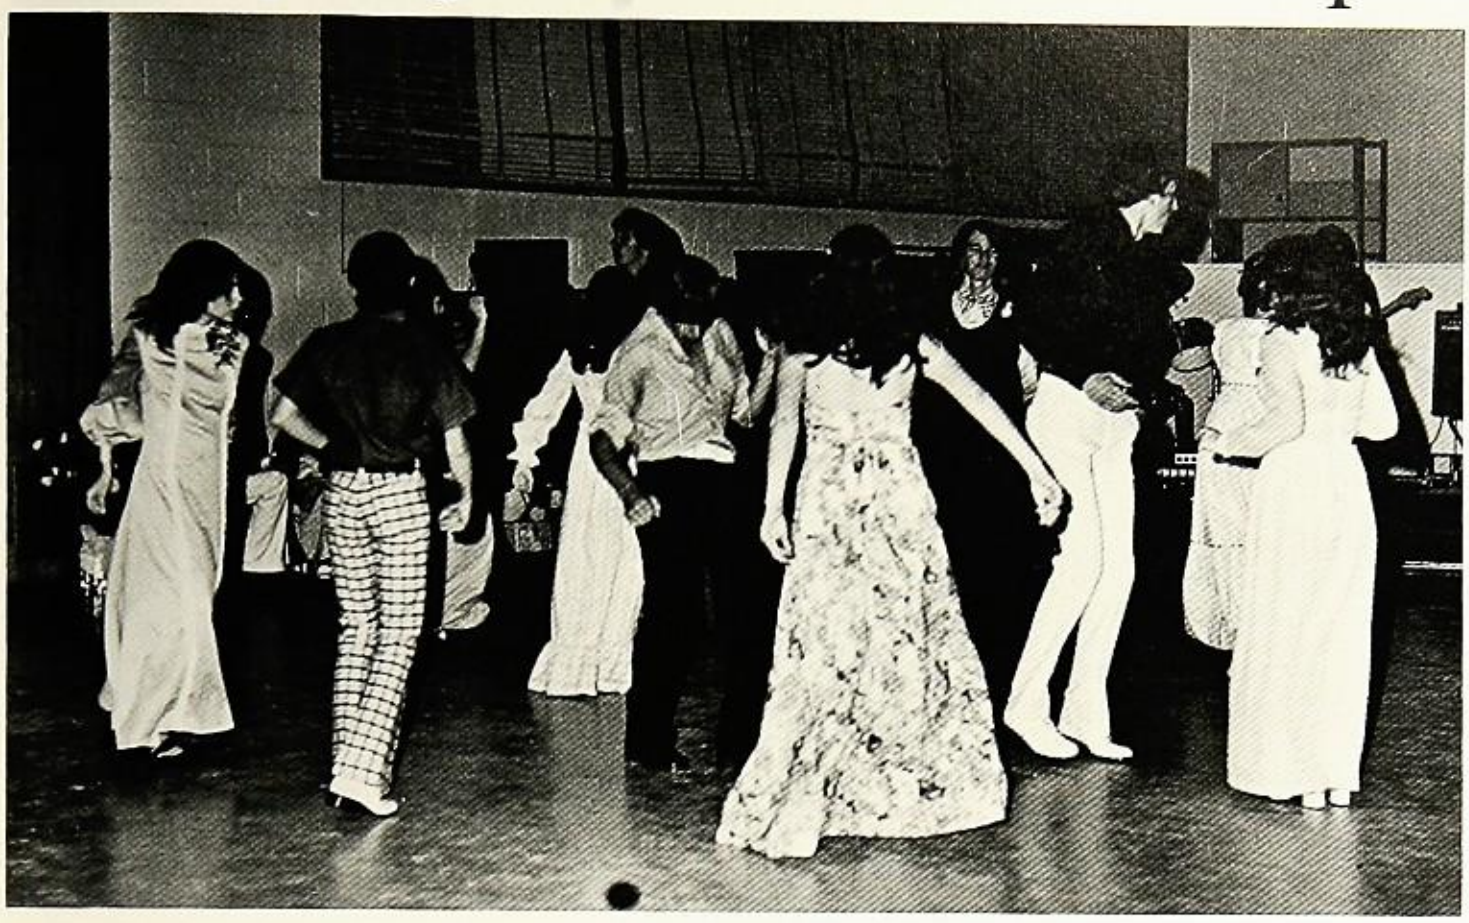


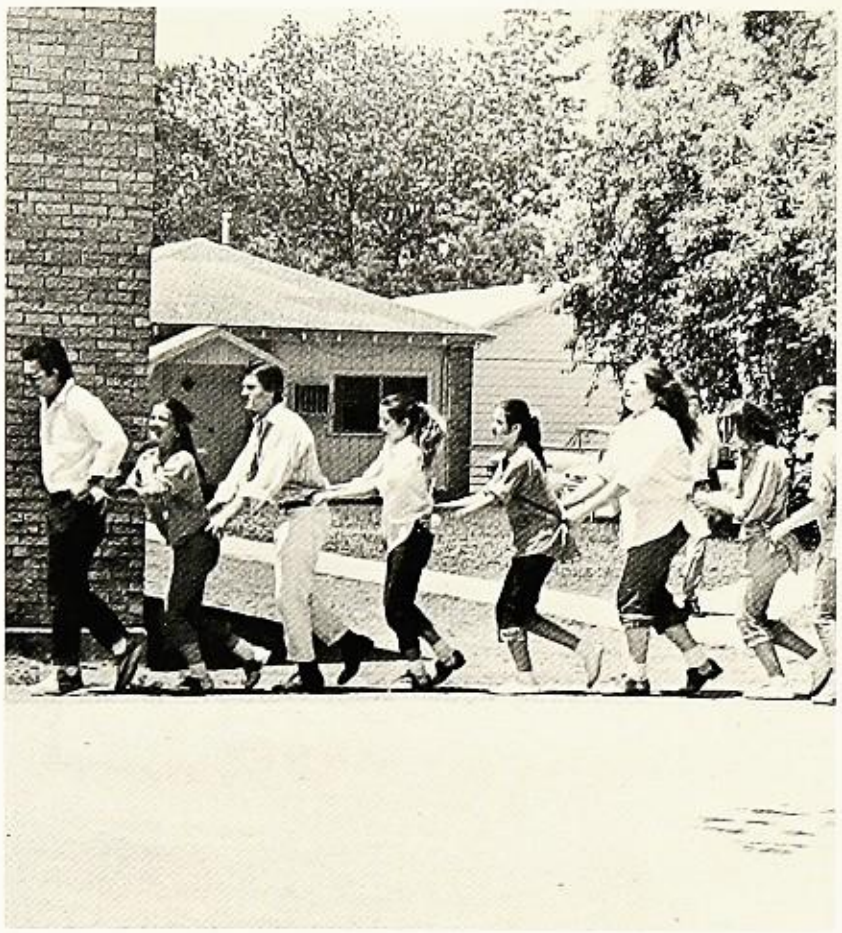


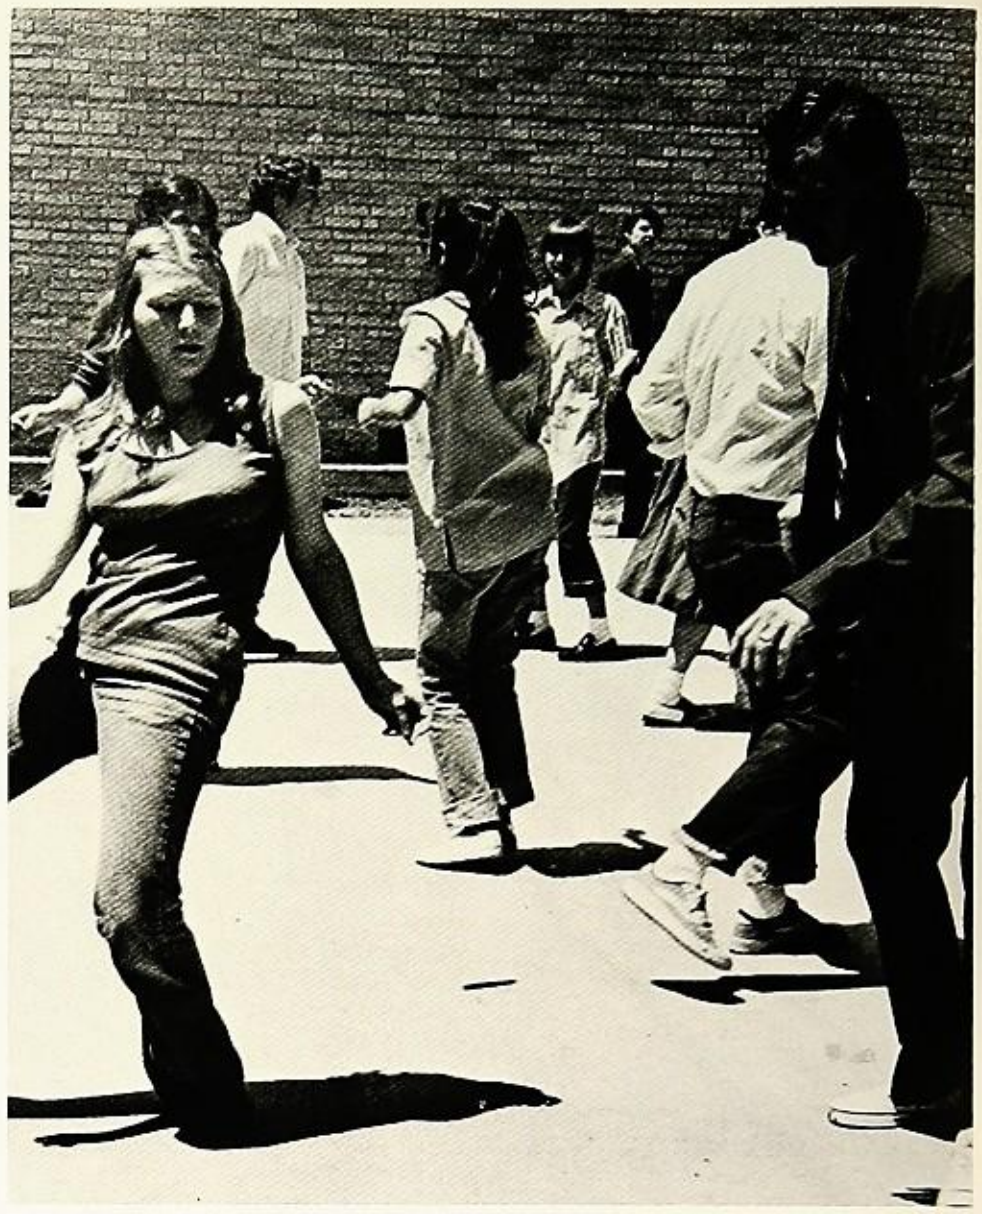


The Freshmen sponsored the annual Spring Formal. They had made the money for the dance by planting trees at Wyerhauser. "Barefacts" played.

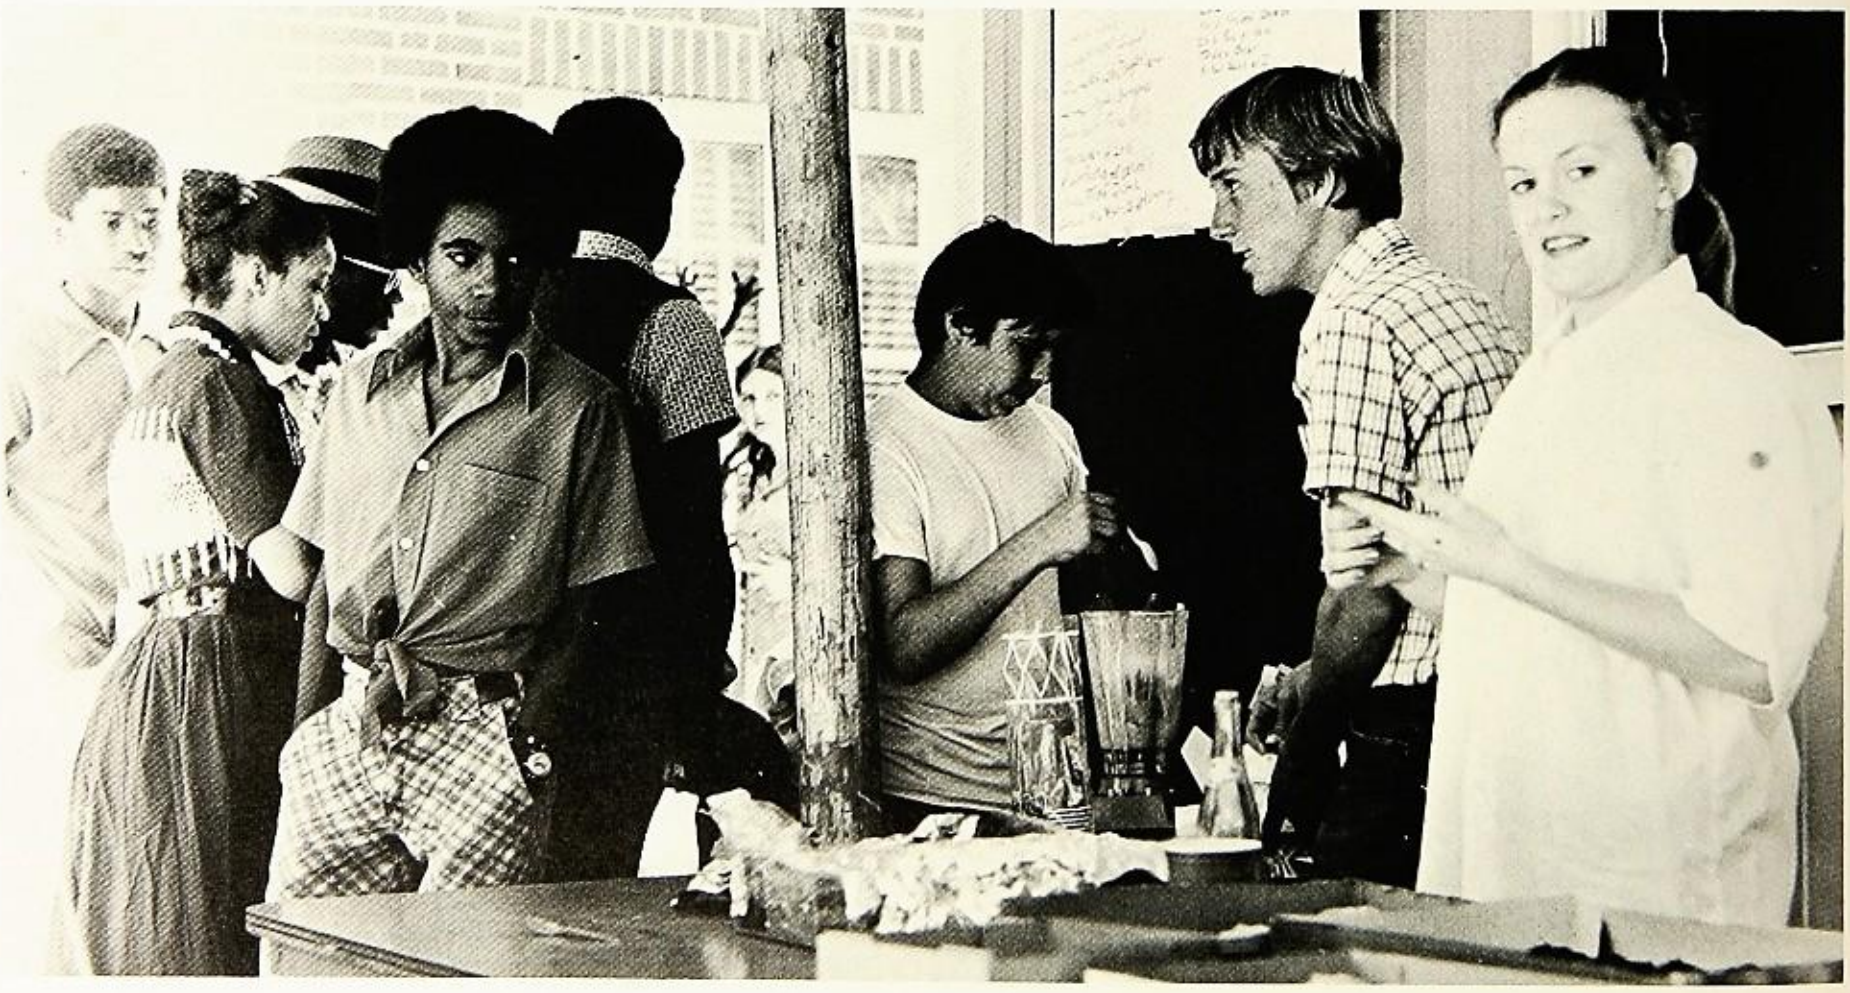
Spring Formal: Freshmen Sponsored







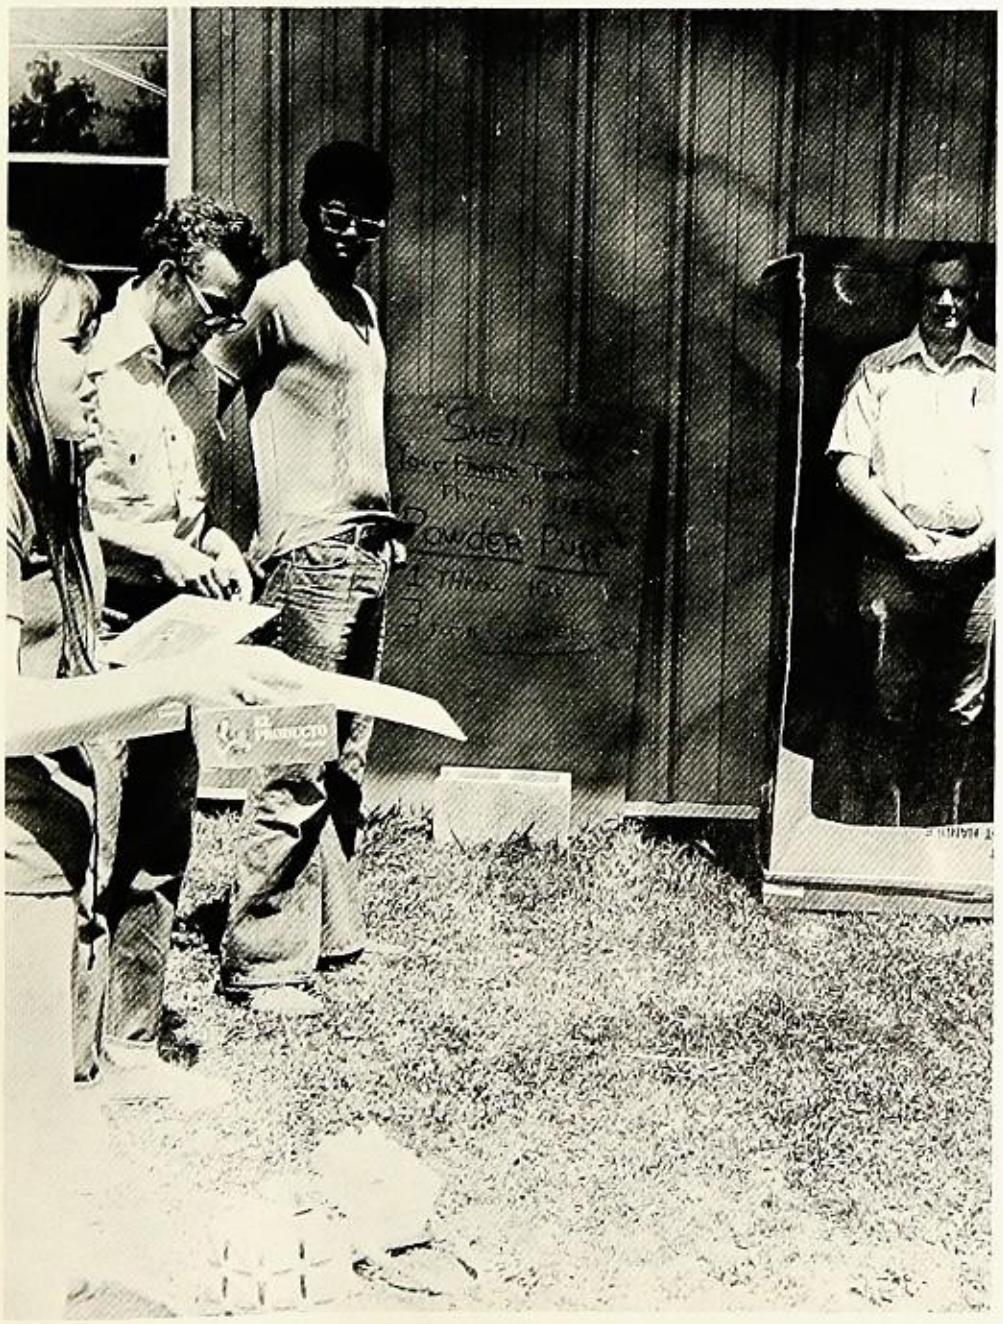
There was dancing on the patio. Mr. Reedy showed them how to do the "Stroll" and "Bunny Hop." Mr. Jones was something else with his slicked down hair, narrow tie, and green coat.



"The 50's Day" was sponsored by the Student Council. It was a big success. Student Council members Mike Singletary, Rickey Bachman and Renee Williams were in charge of the Malt Shop.

50's Day: Time to Remember

Kay, Stephanie, and Debbie were dressed as typical teenagers with their gathered skirts, bobby socks, and rolled-up jeans.



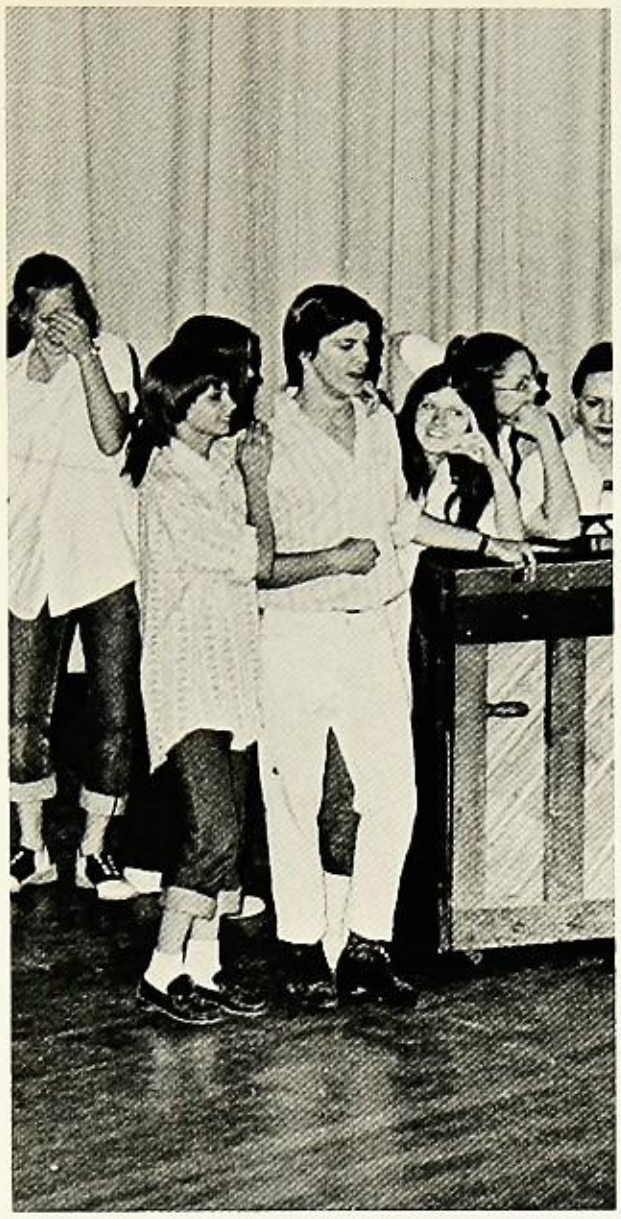
Everyone got to "smell up" his favorite teacher with a powder puff.

It was all the way to the top of the greased pole. His prize was $5.

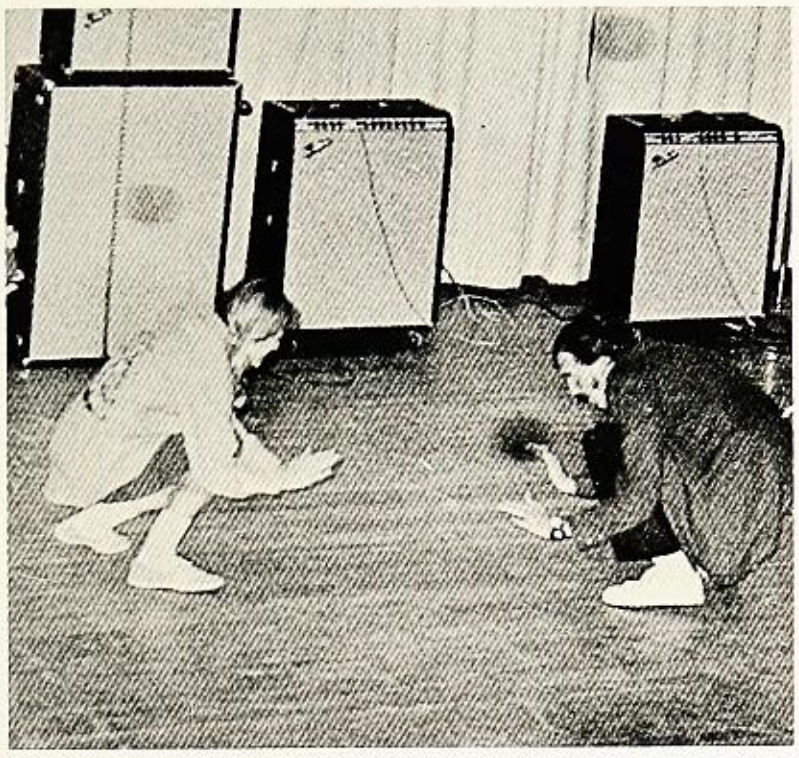
It is fun passing Lifesavers whether you are in the 50's or 70's.

Mr. Whitsell's VW will never be the same. The contest to see how many from each class could be crowded into it had to be called off when the Juniors broke out the windshield and two tires went flat.

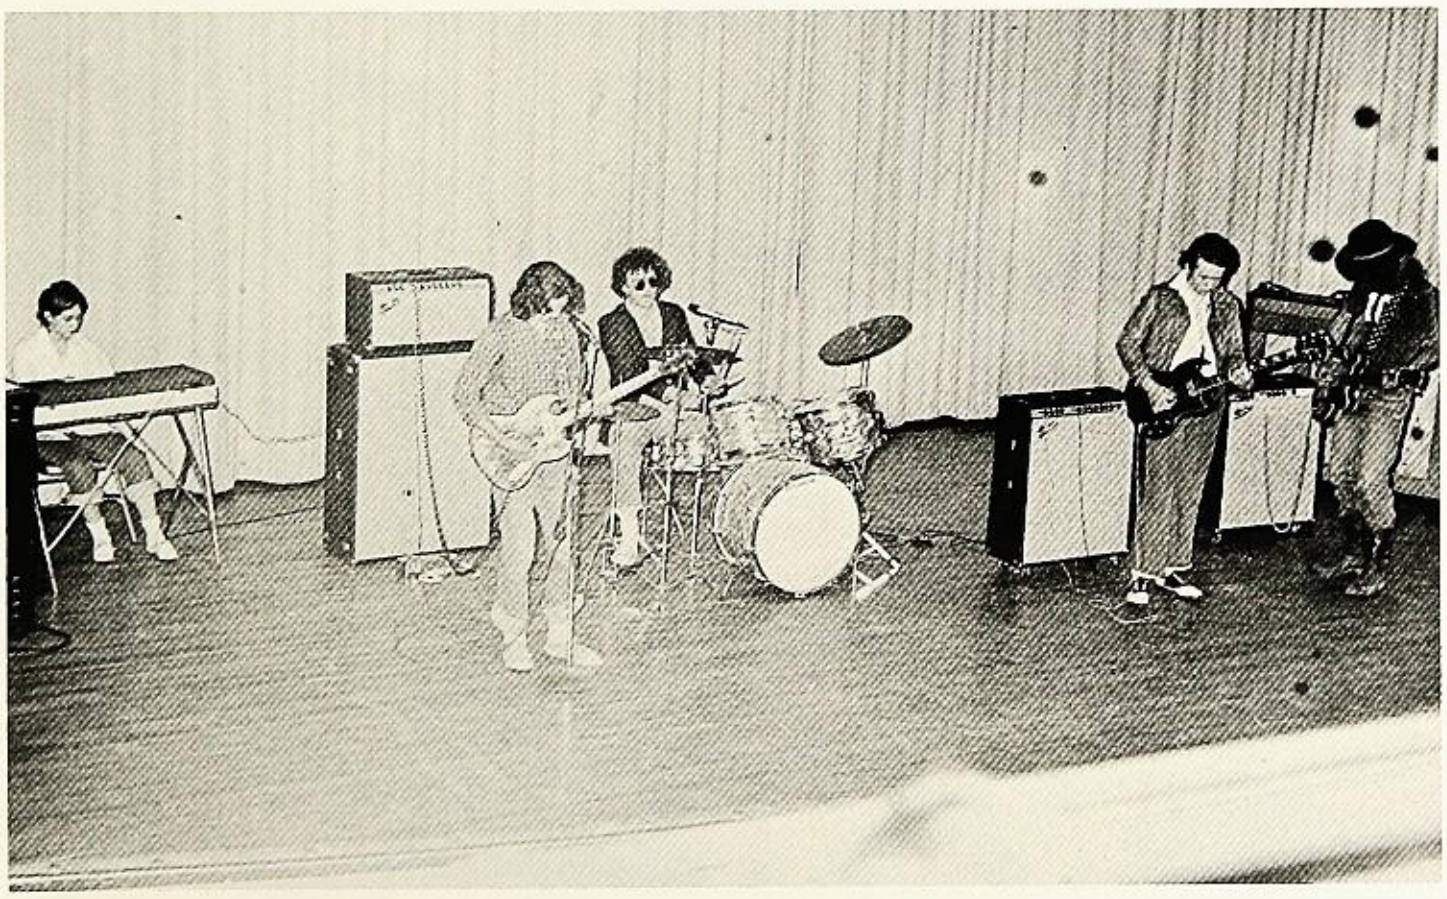
50's Day: Ended With Assembly



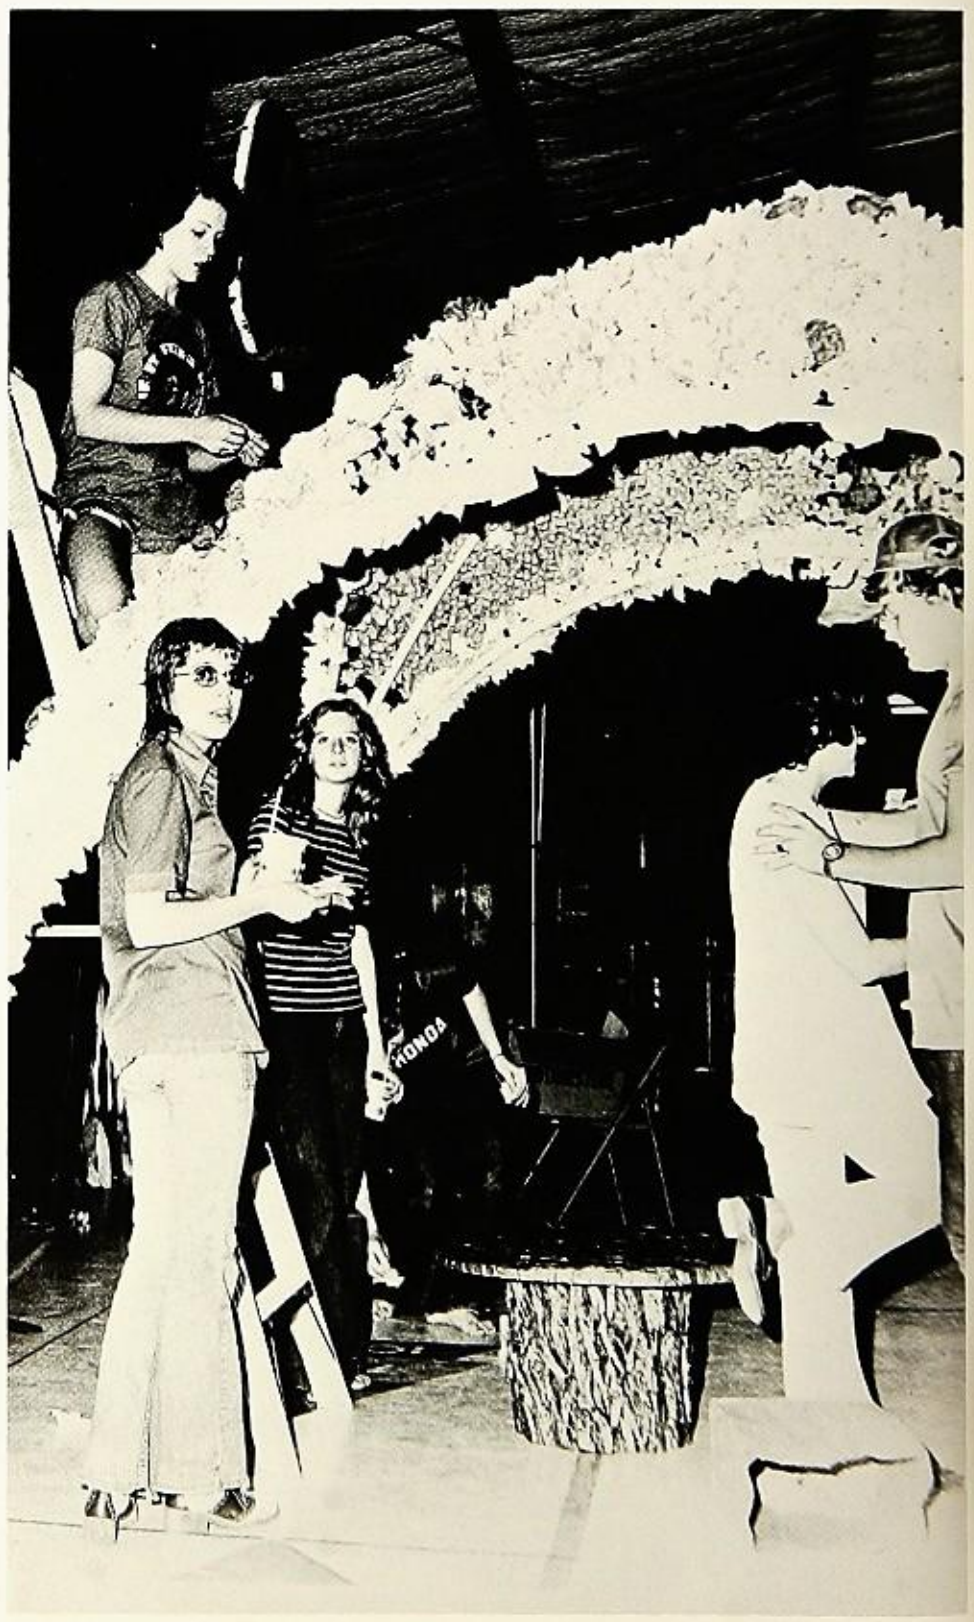
Rickey was surrounded by admirers as he sang a medley of songs.



Mrs. Jones and Mr. Jones had not forgot how to do the dances of the 50's.

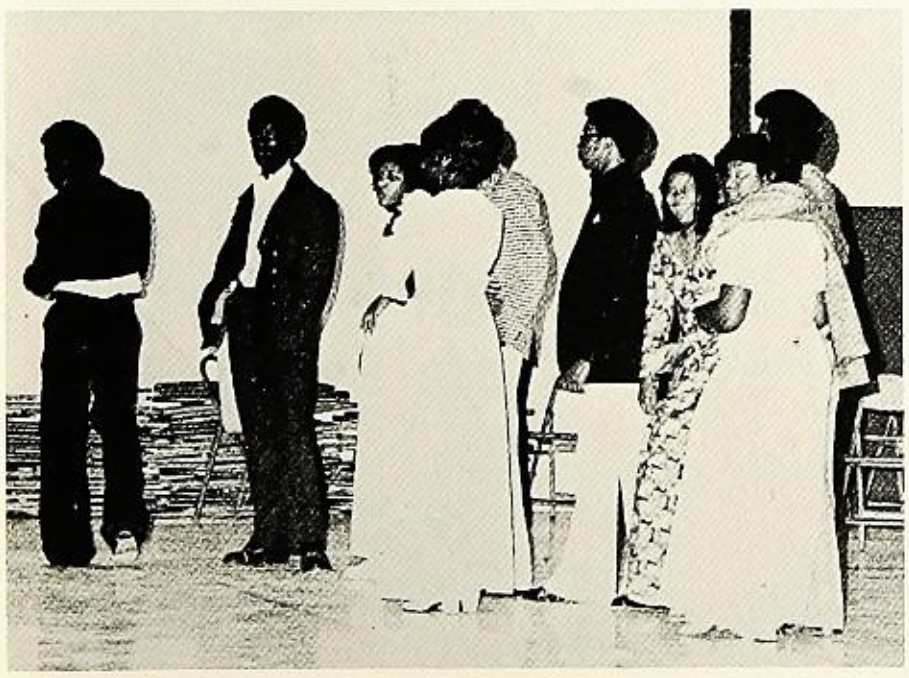


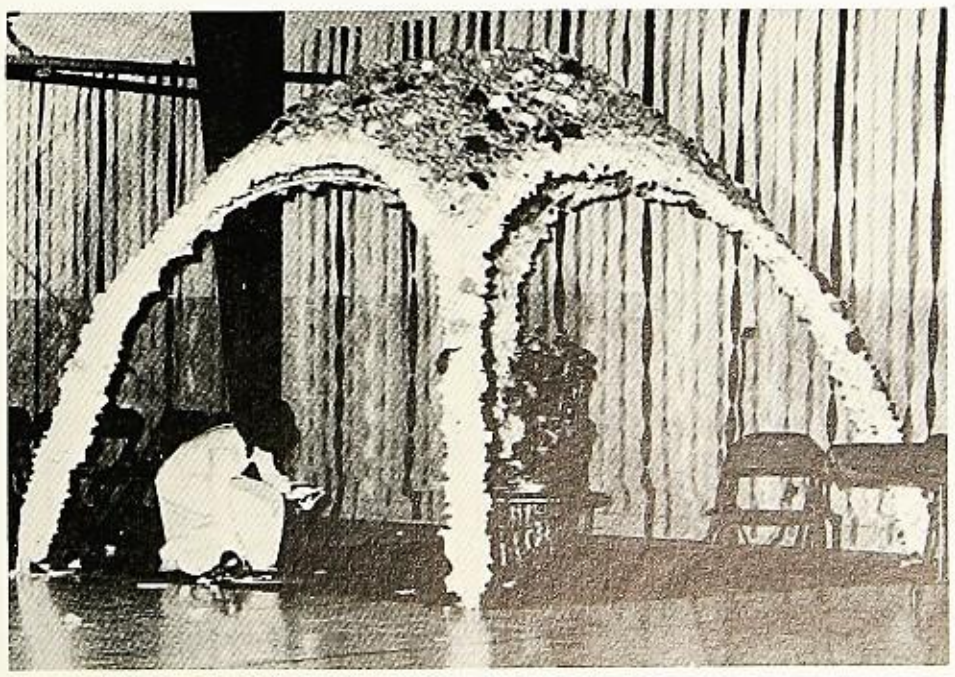
Stillhouse played at the assembly. Jenny Pritchett, Bobby Broomfield, Ross Mitchell, John Pritchett, and Chuck Johnston make up the group.



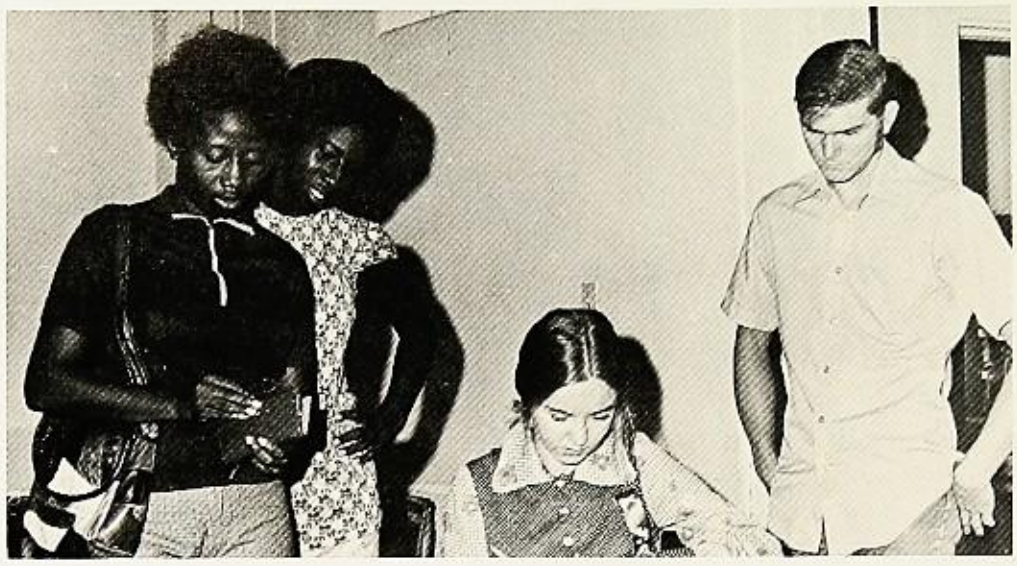
The Juniors began working early in order to have a successful reception for the Seniors. The decorations were said to be the most beautiful ever.

Junior-Senior Reception: "Rush" Played

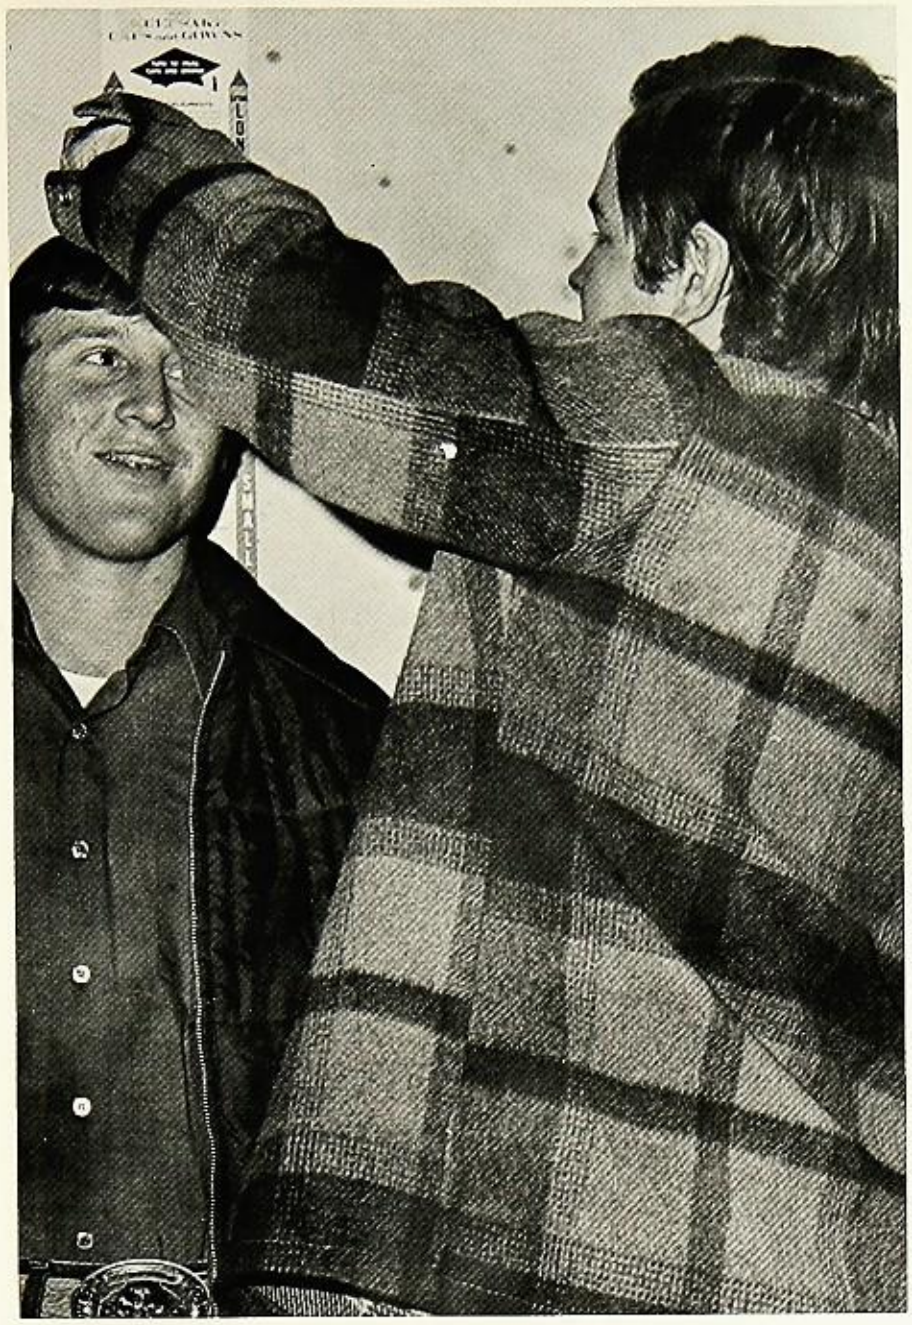


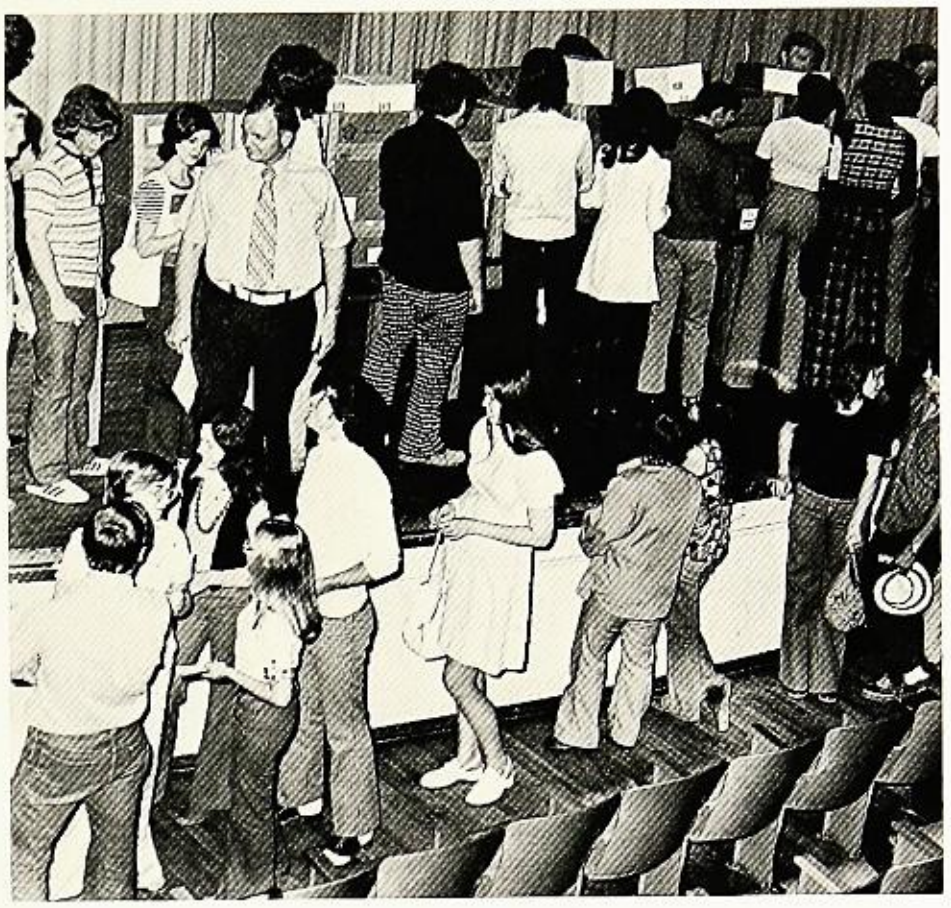


Seniors: The End of the Beginning

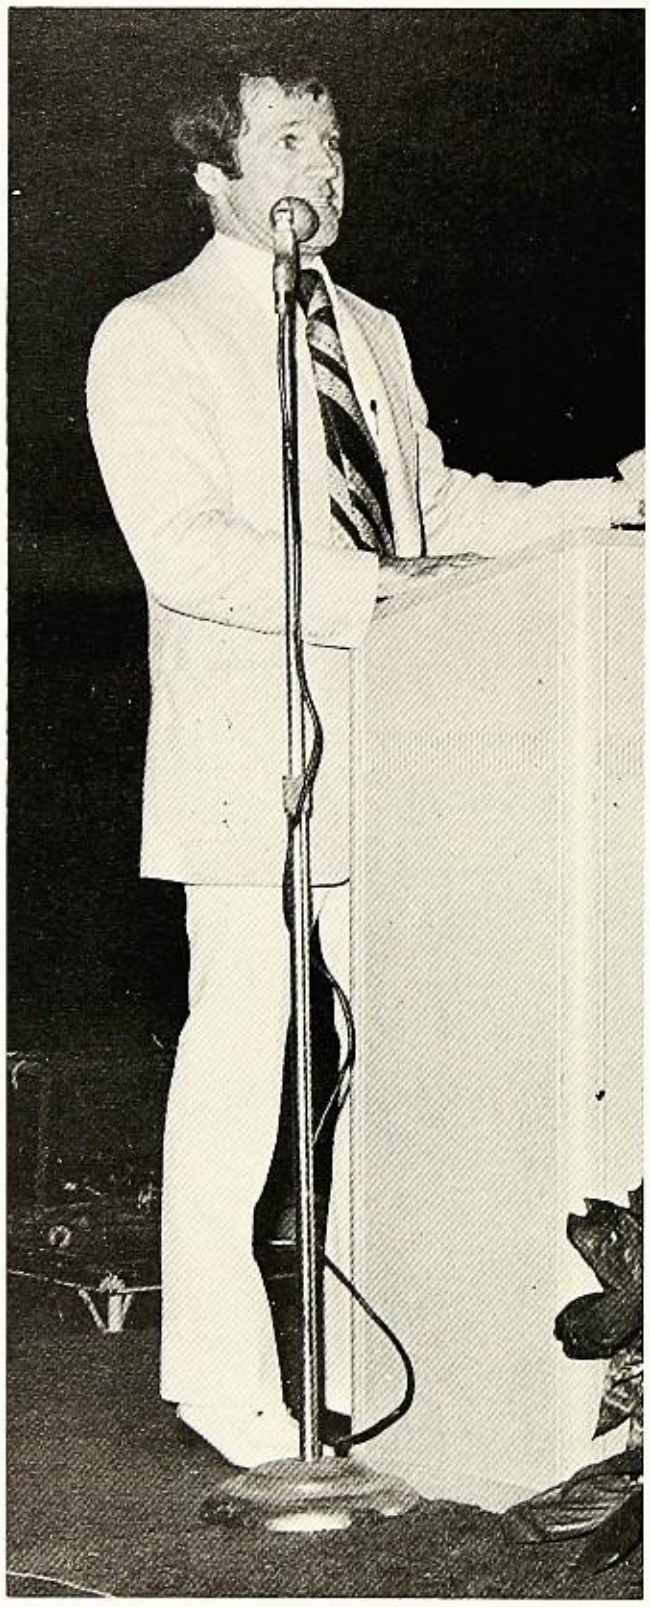


The first time they really felt like Seniors was when they got their Senior rings. After that the time began to pass quickly. They had their pictures made and later on were measured for their cap and gown. They knew the end was near when they picked up their invitations. One of the best parts of the year was exchanging cards and signing the memory books.

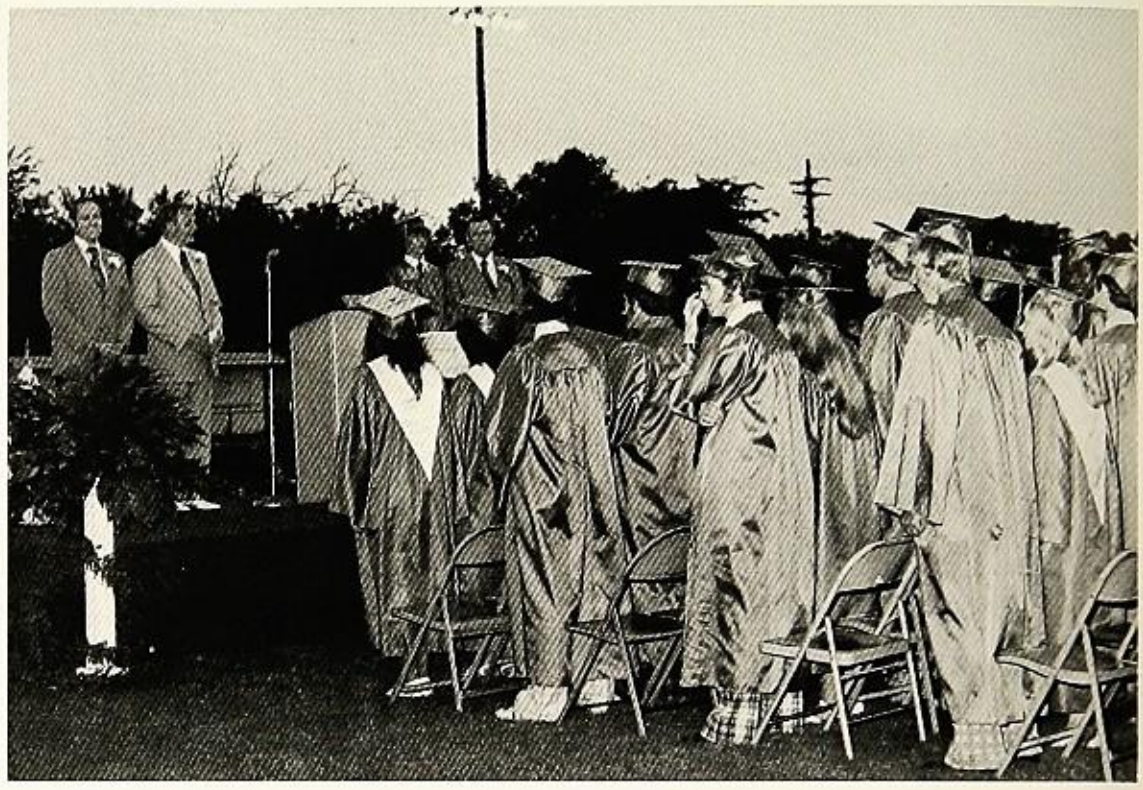


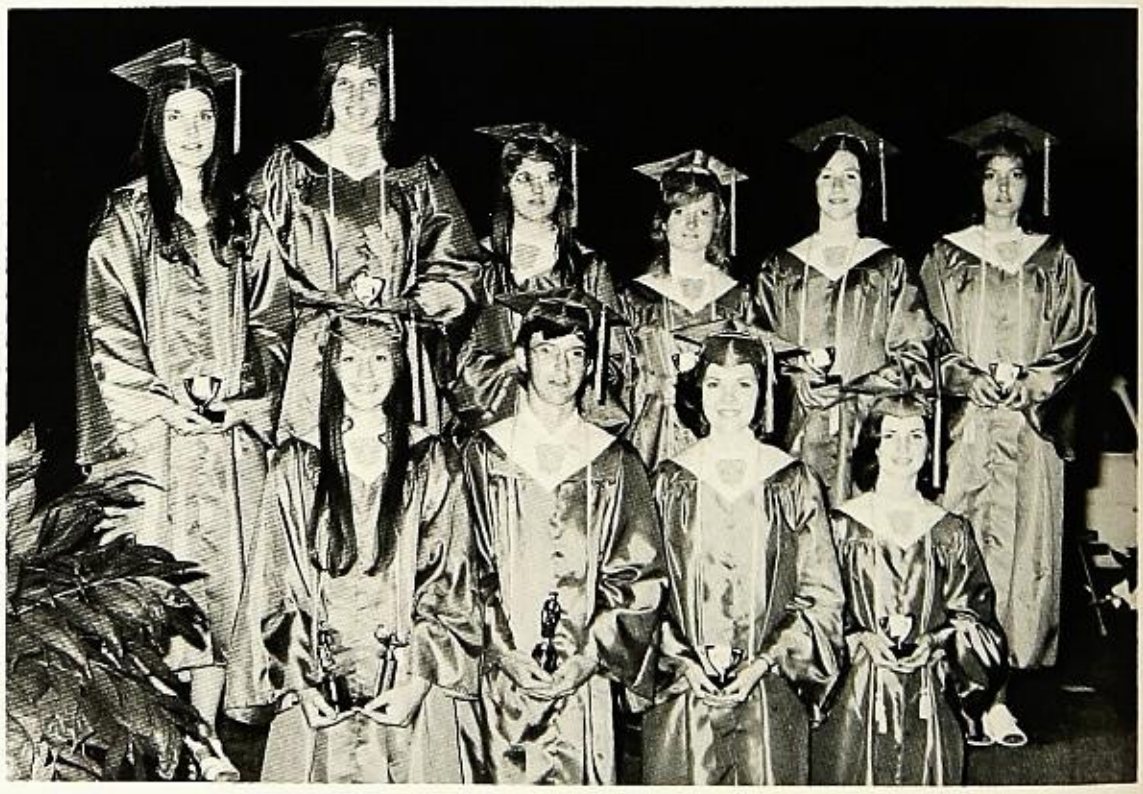


Graduation: May 24, 8:00 p.m.
New Century Athletic Field



The guest speaker was Pierce M. Allman, Vice-President, Tracy-Locke, Inc.





TOP TEN: Anthea Harvey, Larry Smith, Marinell Bean, Rhonda Rhodes, Lisa Crockett, Glenda Ross, Rogena Bray, Cinda Hall, Clare Vaughan, and Pam Limbock.

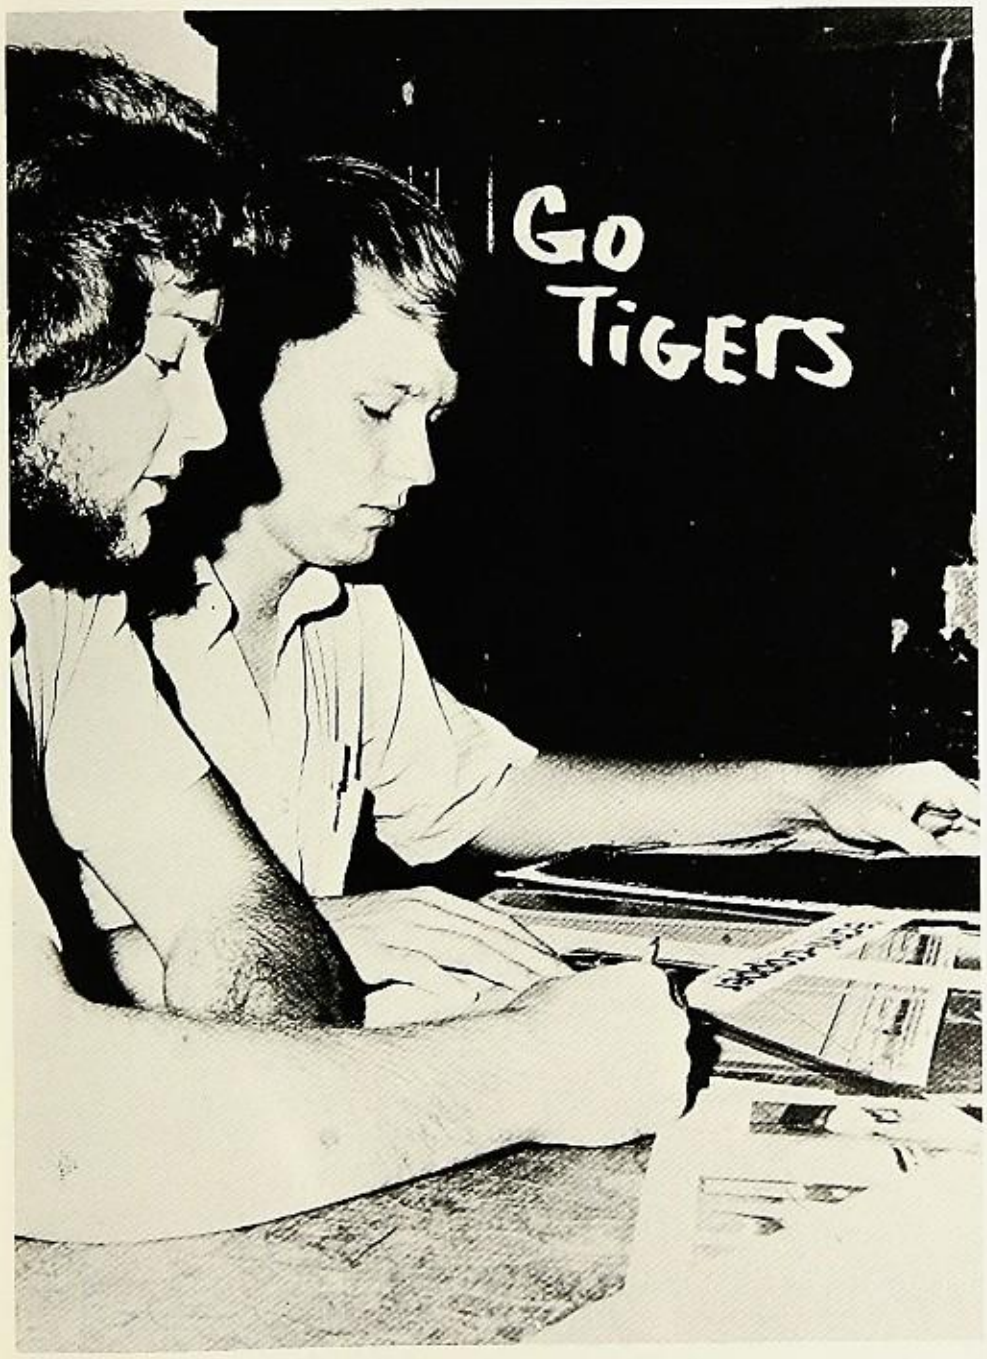
Organizations

Tiger Claw



There is a lot of work that goes into putting a yearbook together. Ads have to be sold; hundreds and hundreds of pictures have to be taken. Then those pictures must be arranged on the page. For 180 days the book belongs to the staff. In August it belongs to the student body.

STAGE BAND

Lisa and Mary Beth made decorations for the banquet.

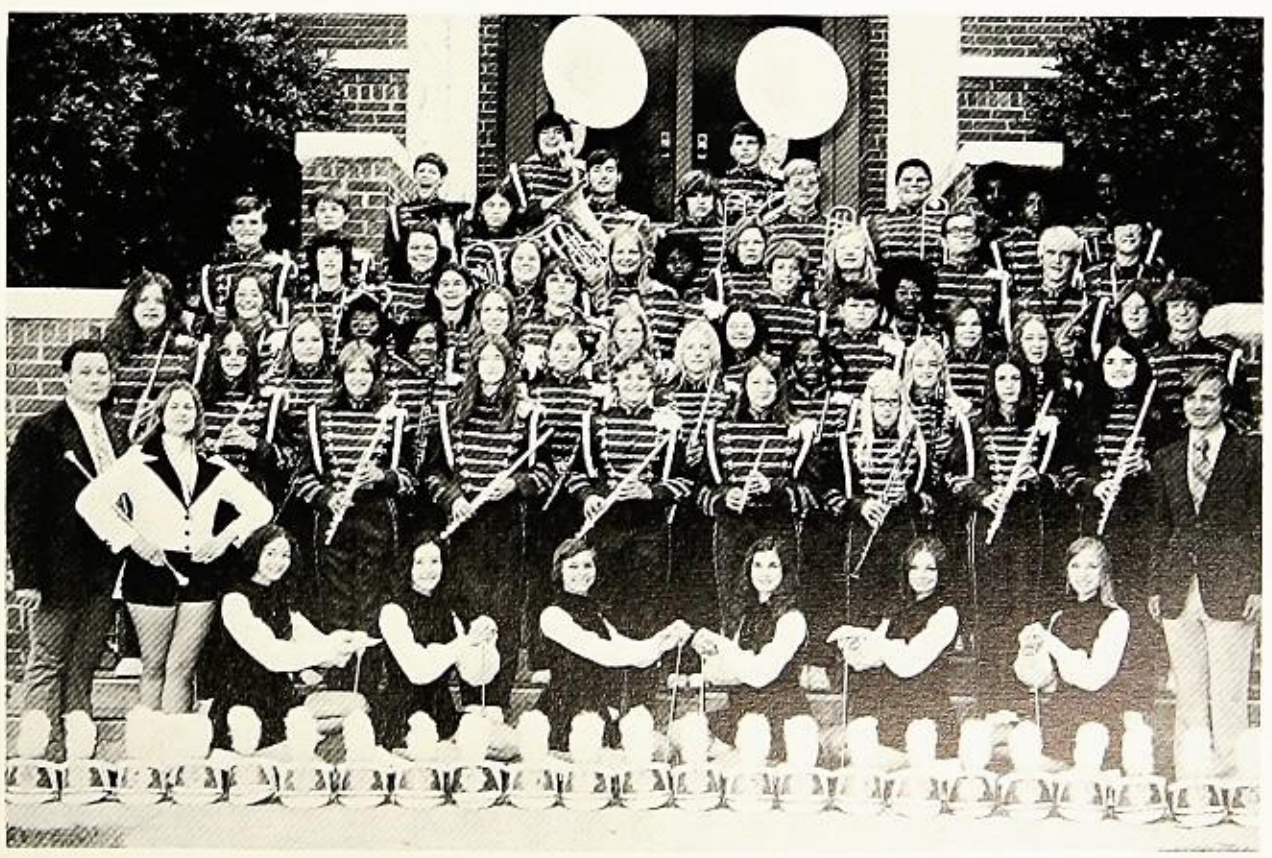
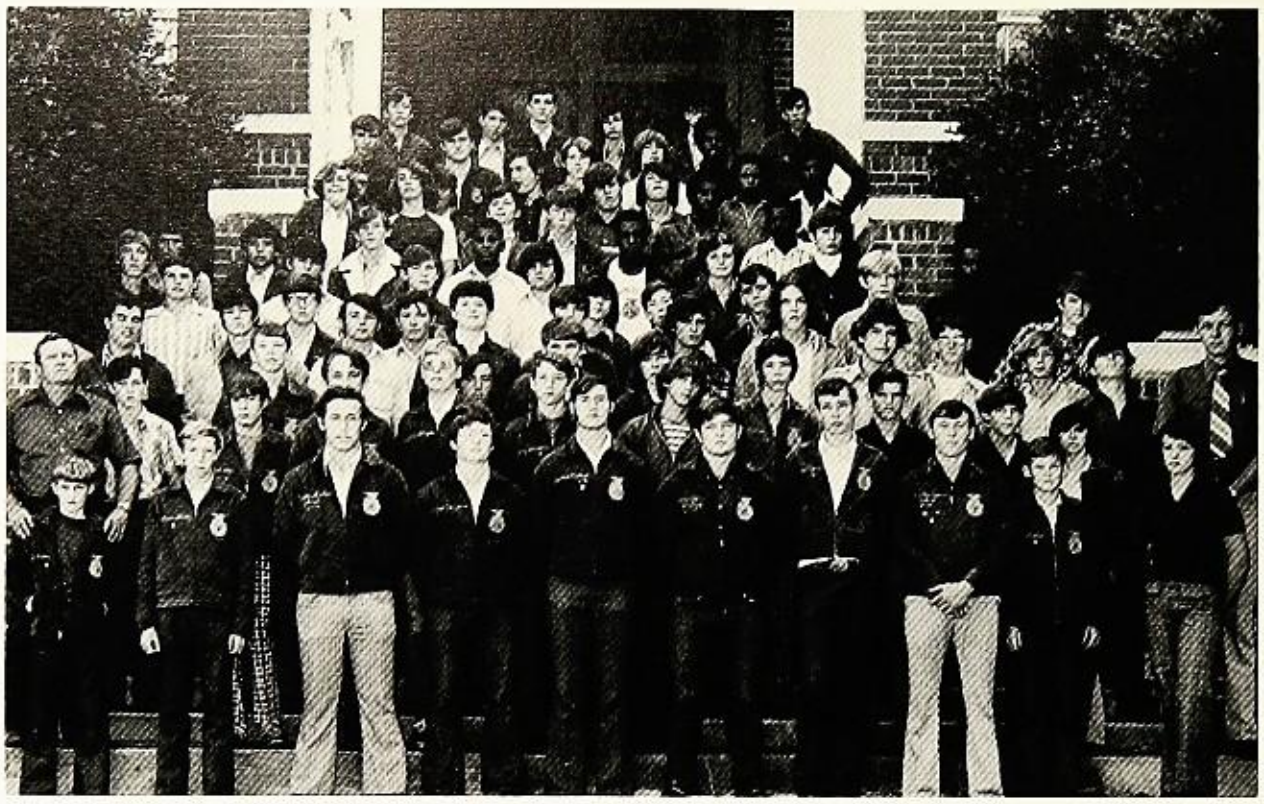
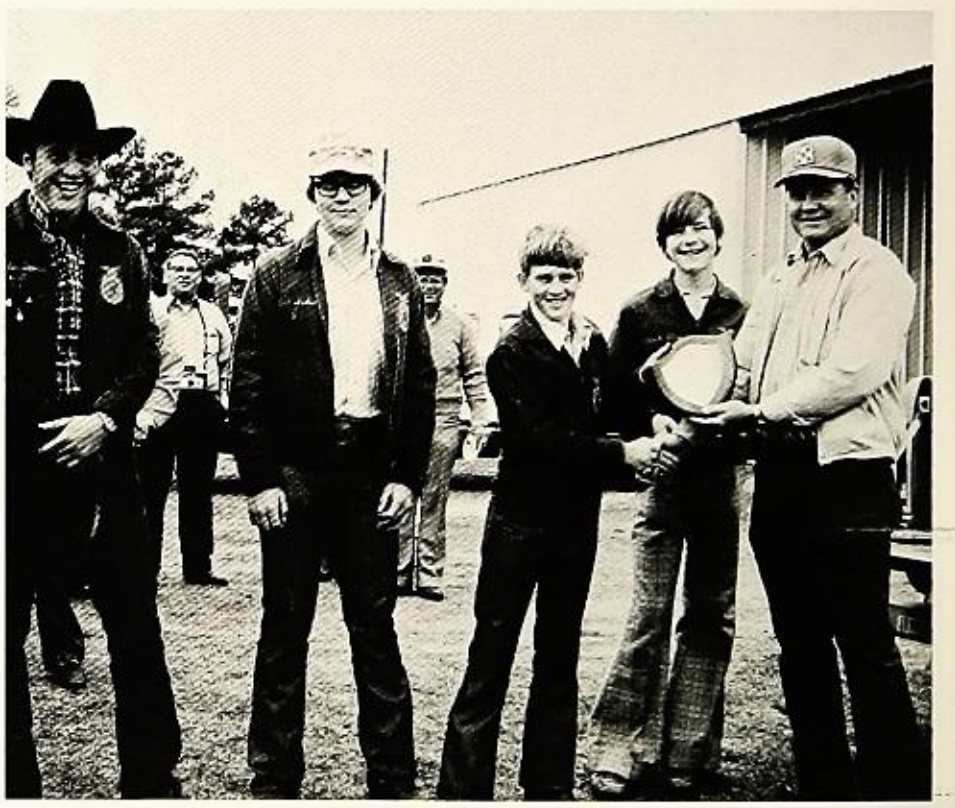
Rhonda and Marsha look at the awards.



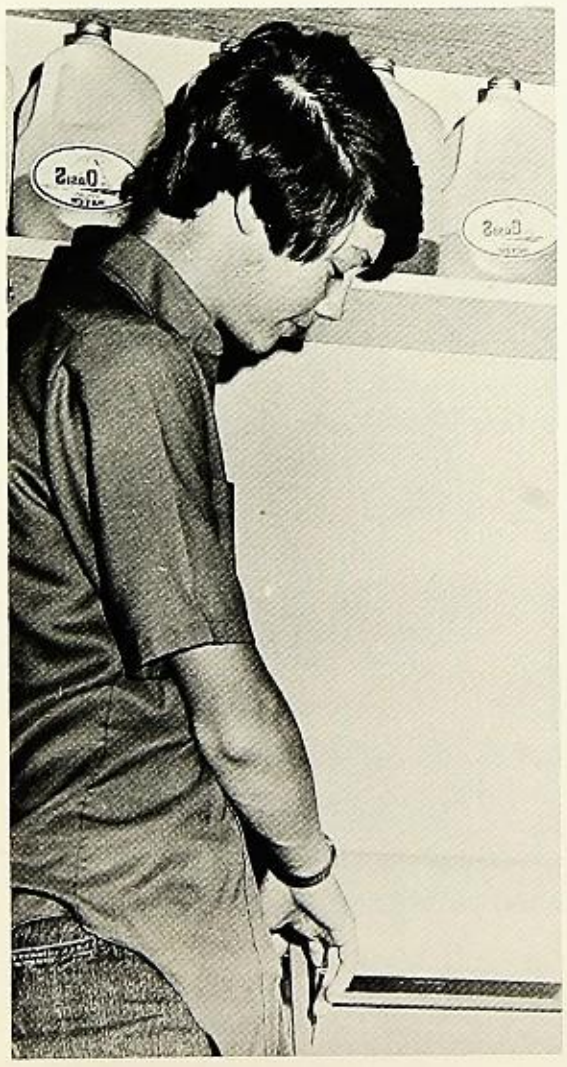
Future Farmers of America





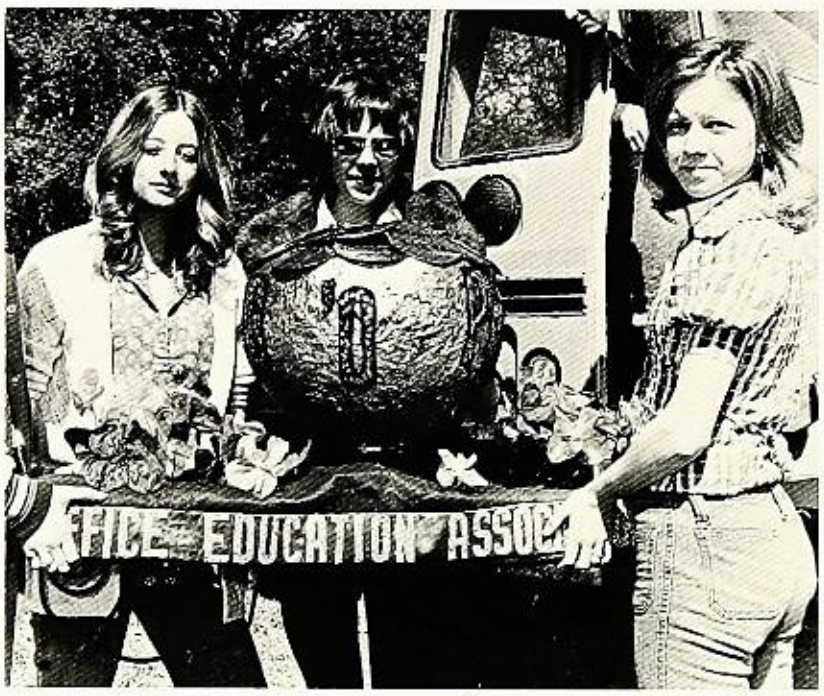
The Horse Show has come to be an important part of the County Fair. Wayne Penny and Gary Baird discuss horses with Charles Dannheim. CHS won their share at the Soil and Water Conservation Contest. Teams placed in Land Judging and Woodland contests.

Photography Club



Most of the pictures in the 1974 TIGER CLAW were developed and printed by the Photography Club.

OEA



OEA members help Sherrie load her chapter display.

Martha Bean's display was used at the County Fair.

Sherrie and Ann both placed in the area contest.

Vocational Education

Sparks flew as Rodger worked in the shop.

Building Trades

Metal Trades

Auto Mechanics

Up-to-date equipment is essential for a successful vocational program.

Smile candles were sold to raise money for children with muscular dystrophy.

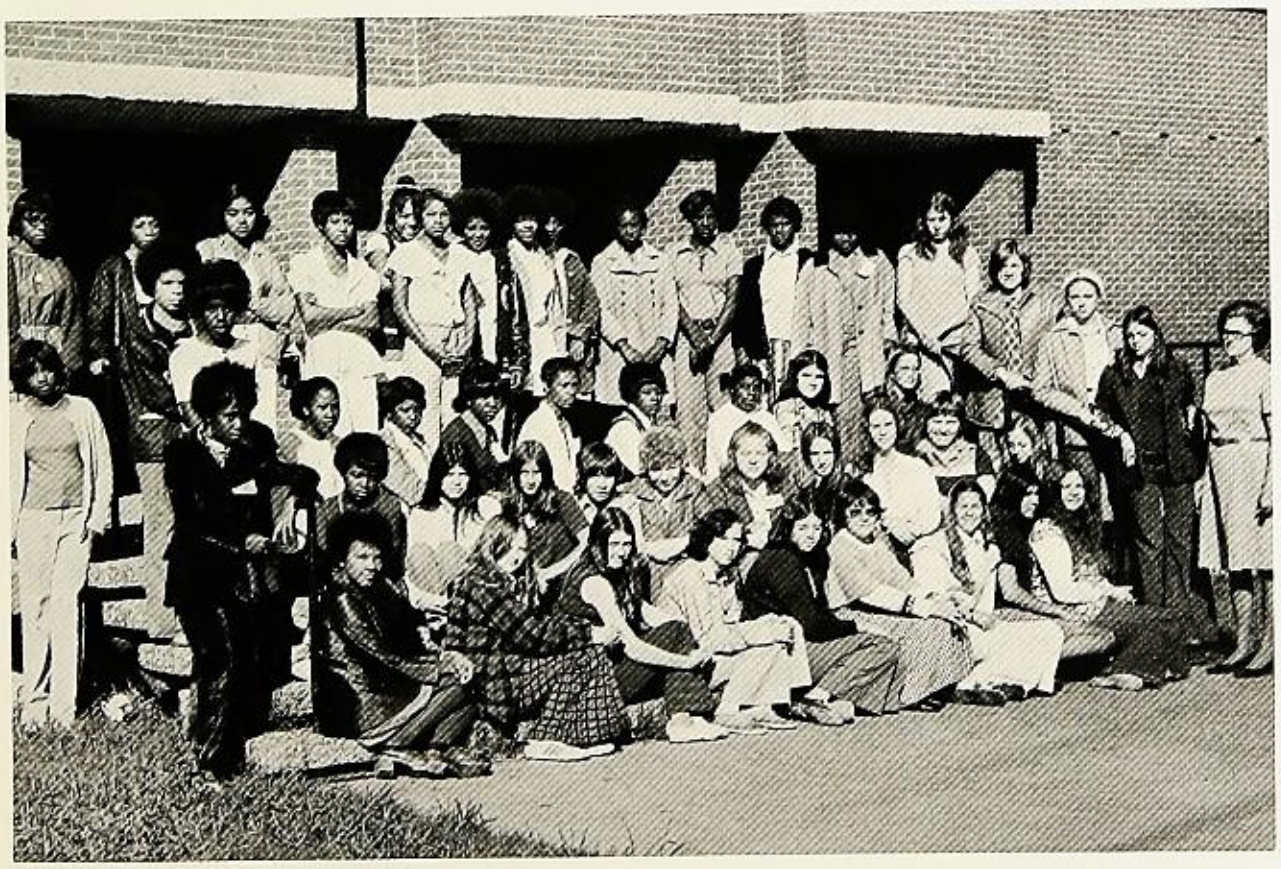
Four hands are better than two when it comes to doing stitcheroo.

Collecting used stamps to be sent to a foreign country was another project.

Future Homemakers of America

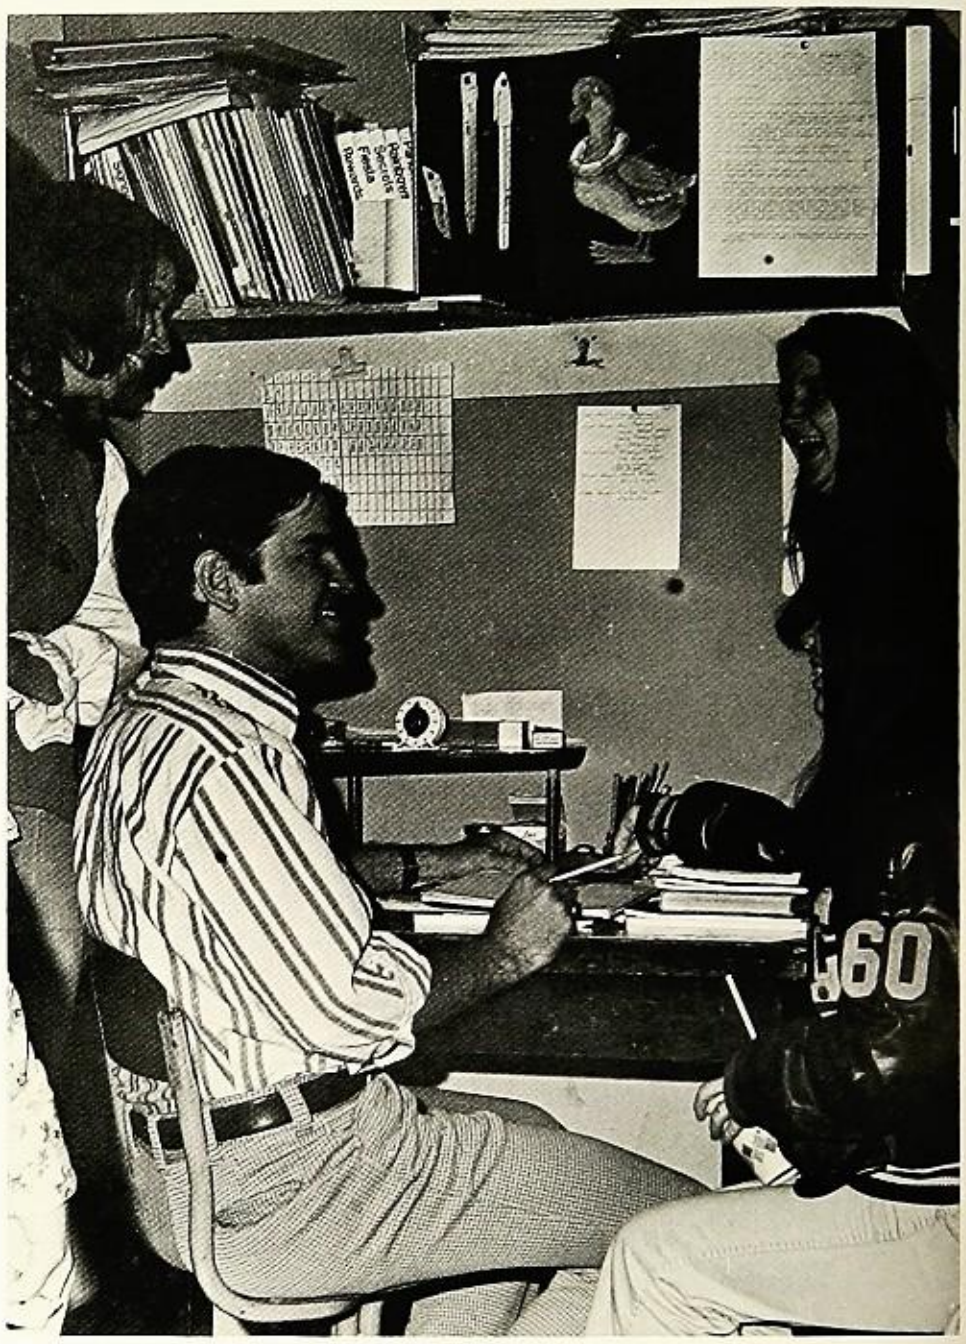
Janet Price was a candidate for an area office. She had represented her chapter at the area and state meetings last year.

Homemaking students got a taste of interior decorating when they planned a bedroom. Karen is showing Ann her first place ribbon.



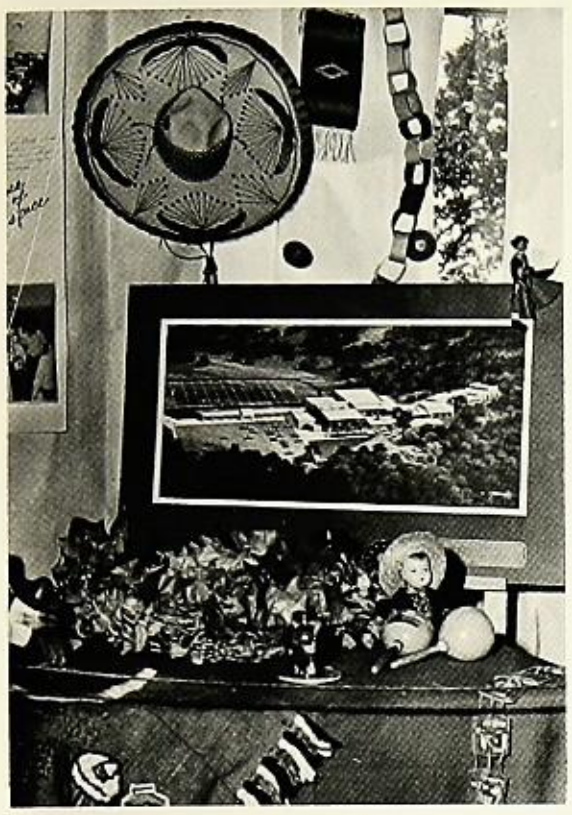
TARS

Mayor Maurice Isbell proclaimed TARS Week.

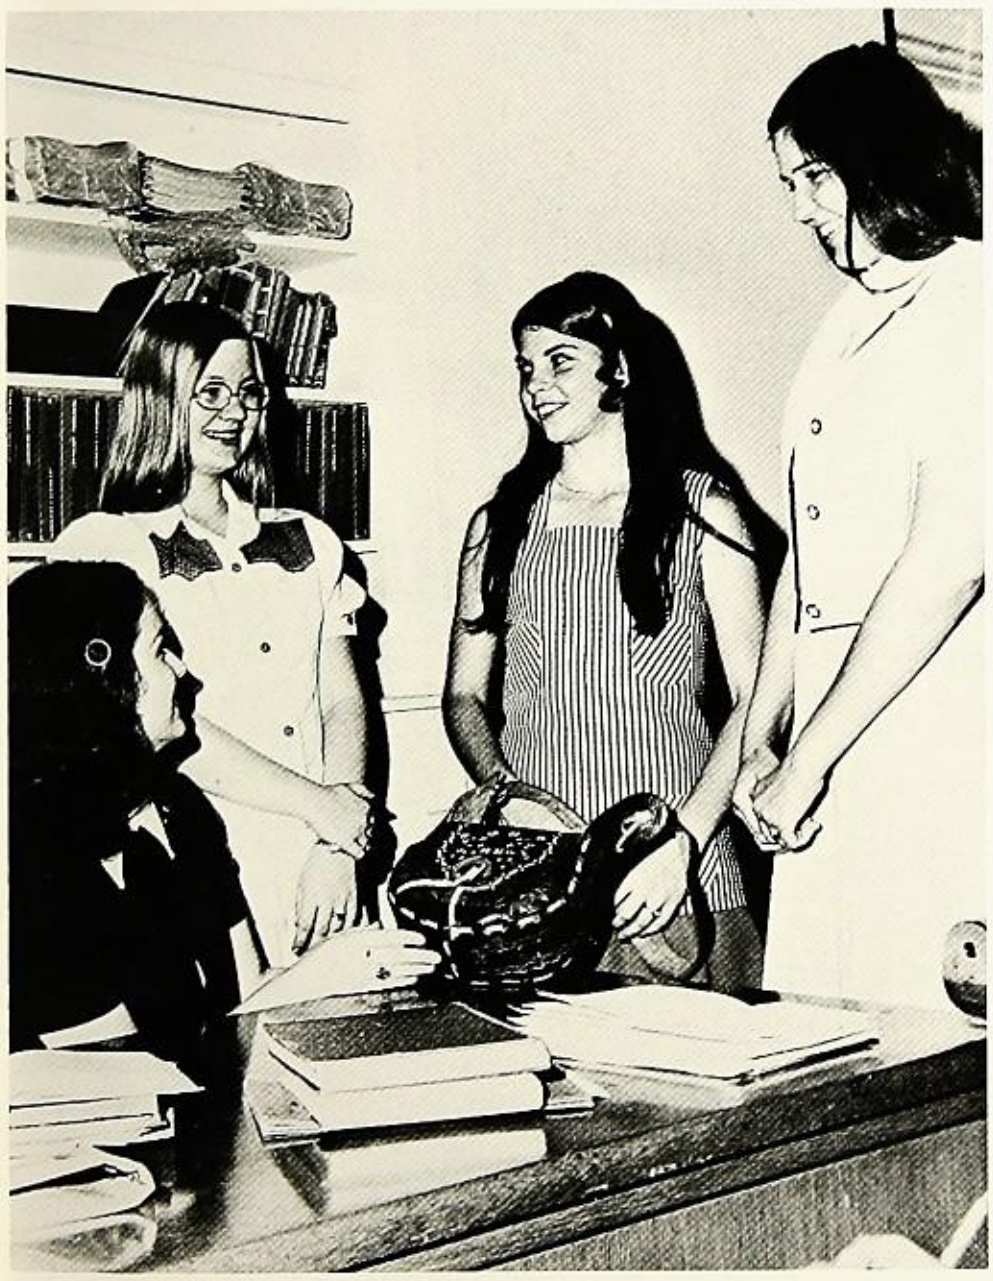


The members of TARS helped plan parties for the lower grades.

Spanish Club



The Spanish Club's entry at the County Fair.



Terri, Pam, Glenda, and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson attended the Spanish Club Convention in San Antonio. Later they went to Laredo and Old Mexico.

During Spirit Week the Spanish Club sponsored an "Ugliest Man on Campus" contest. Tom Slick (alias Mr. Walker) was the winner.

DECA

DECA's entry at the County Fair.

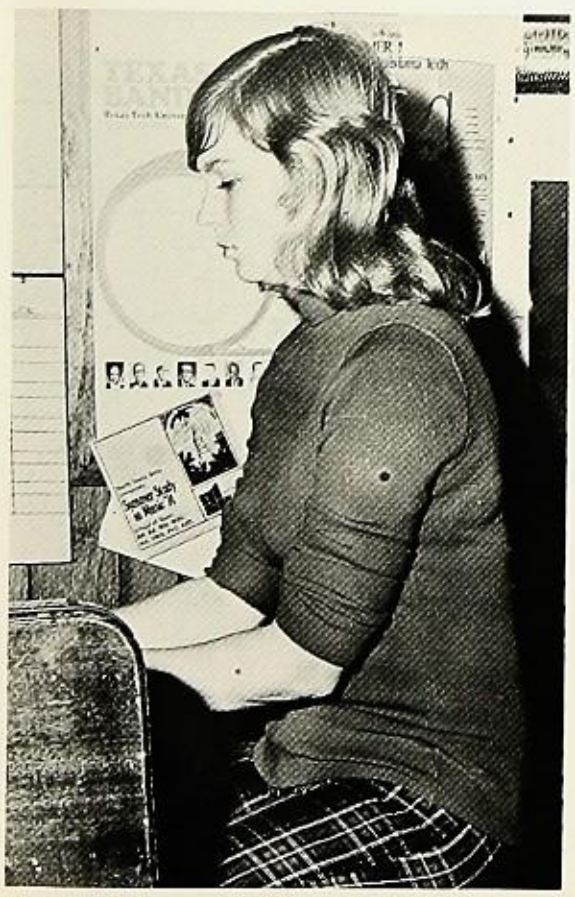
Tim Shimpock and Rickey Acree check merchandise in the classroom store.

Rickey Taylor explains his window display to Don Reed.

Terri's and Cyndy's beautiful voices have added much to the programs at CHS.

Choral Club

The Choral Club got a "One" in Sight Reading at the UIL Contest.

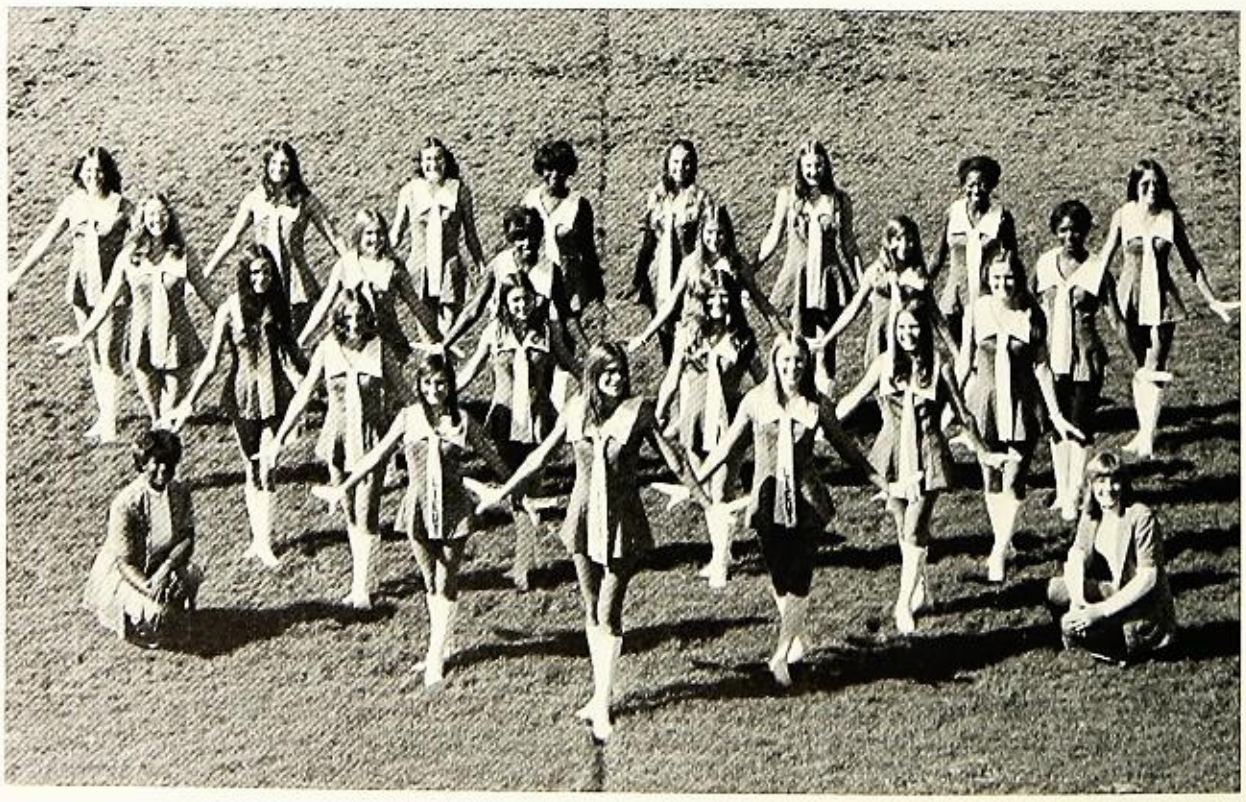


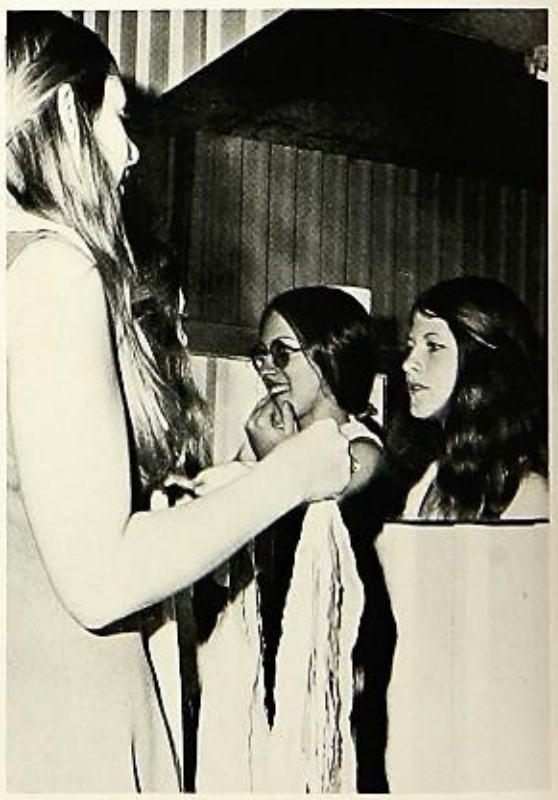
Martha was one of the pianists for the Choral Club.

T-Steppers

The T-Steppers are shown performing at ETSU.

Ellie Calloway was doing fine until her zipper broke. Mrs. Bean can fix anything.





The T-Steppers checked their makeup.

Cheerleaders

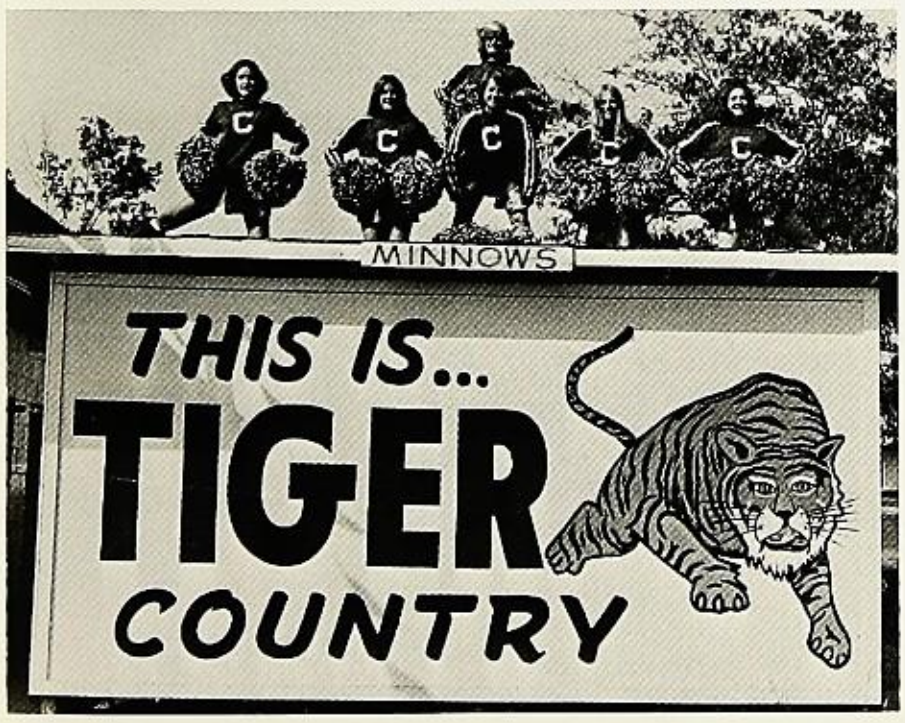
Fifteen tried out for 1974-1975 cheerleaders.

Marinell Bean

Cinda Hall

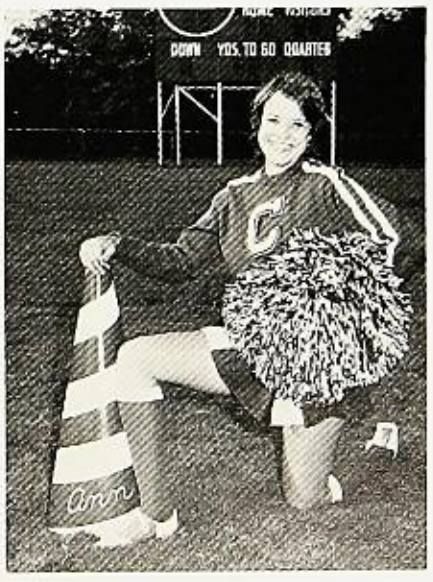
Pam Limbock

Debra Lollar



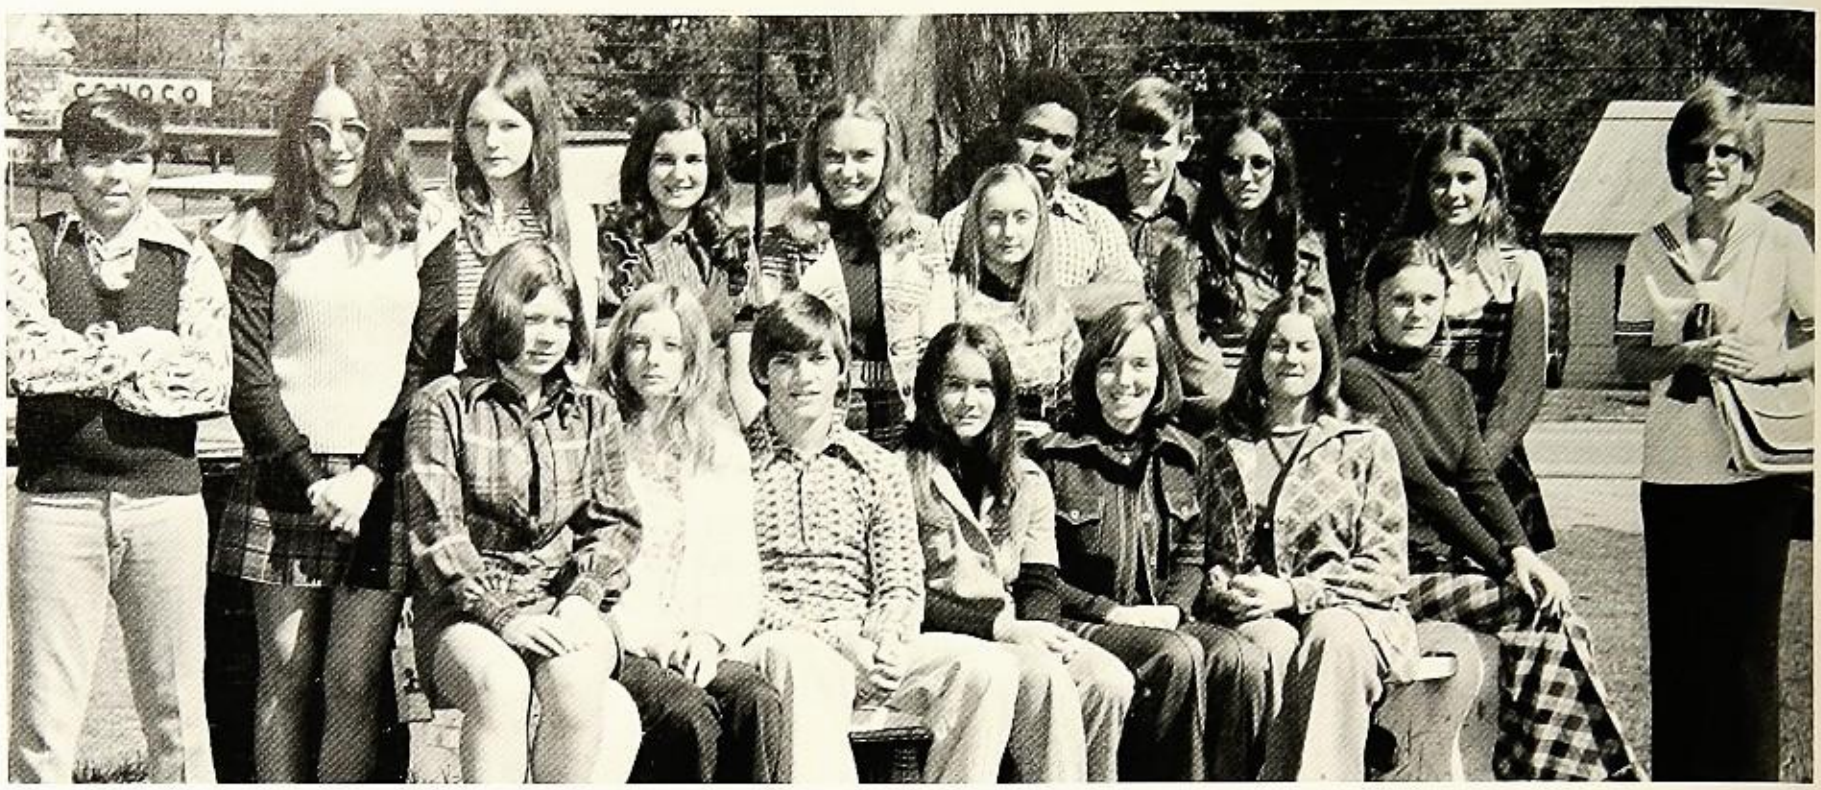
The CHS Cheerleaders cheered the Tigers even from the roof tops.

Ruthetta Swadley



Ann Tharp

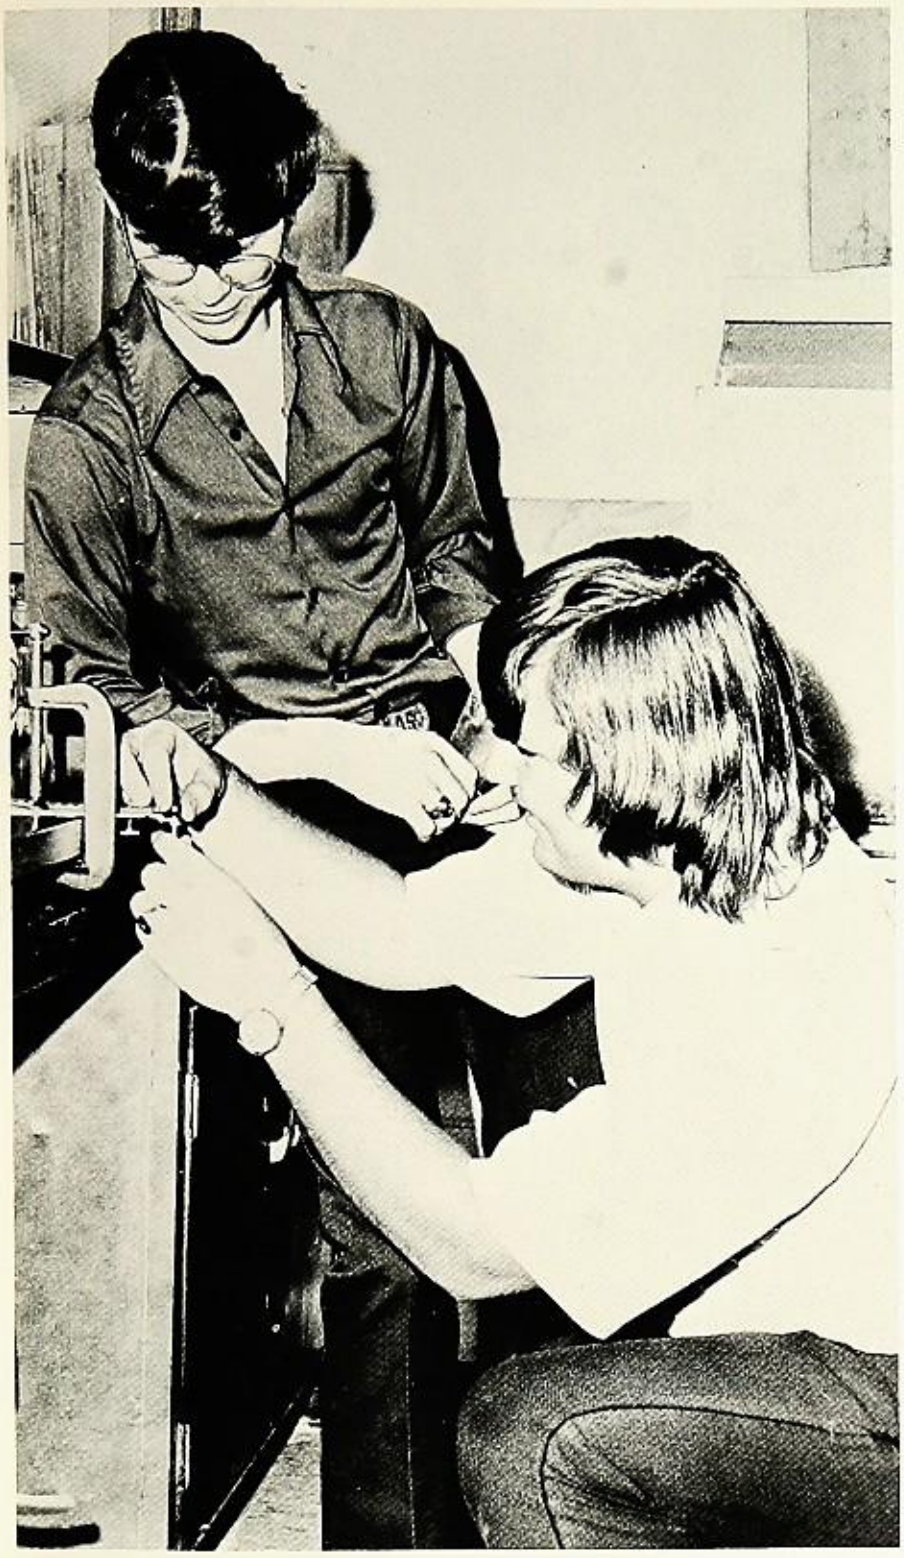
Latin Club

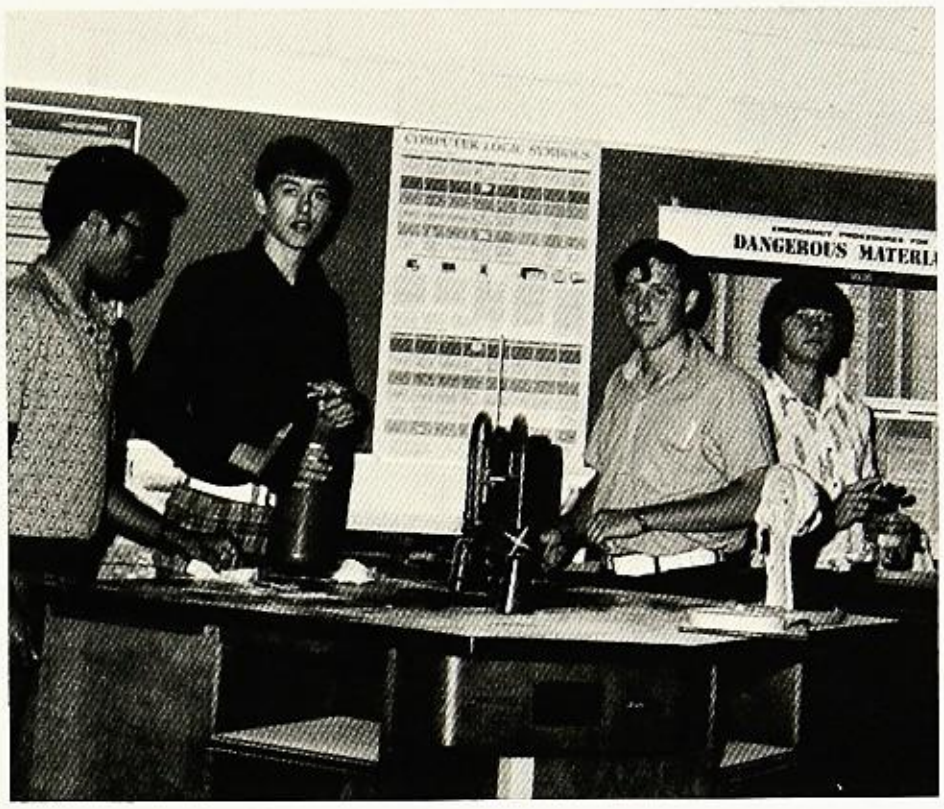


While in Austin they toured the LBJ Library.

Everyone was ready to go to the convention except Debra Ann and Betty Lou; they were trying to find their lost suitcase.

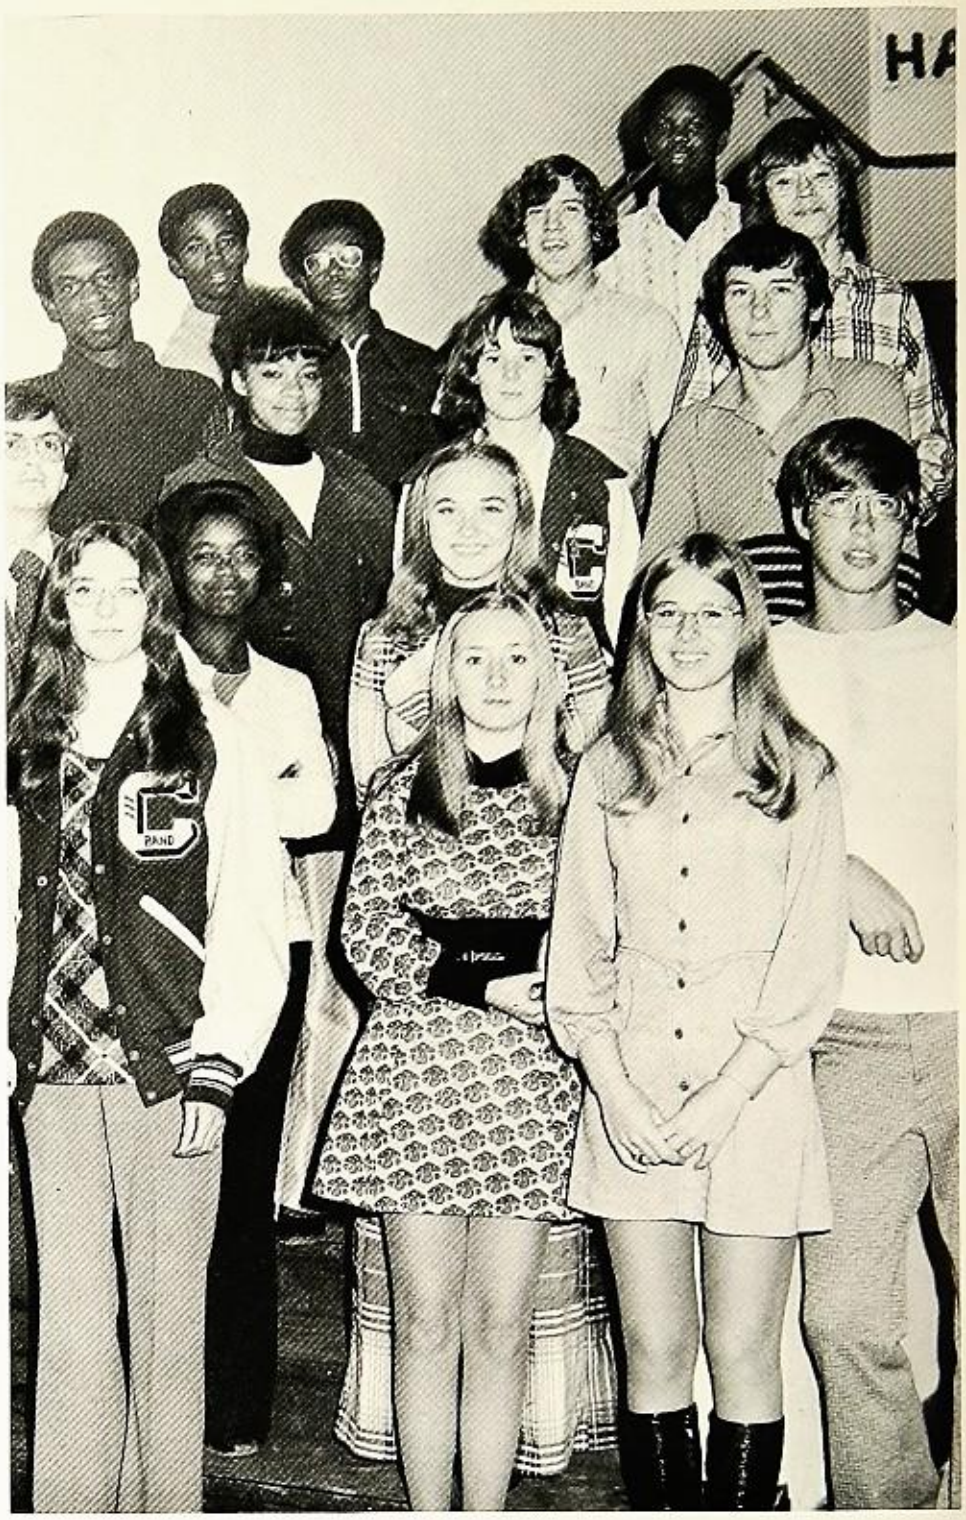
Science Club

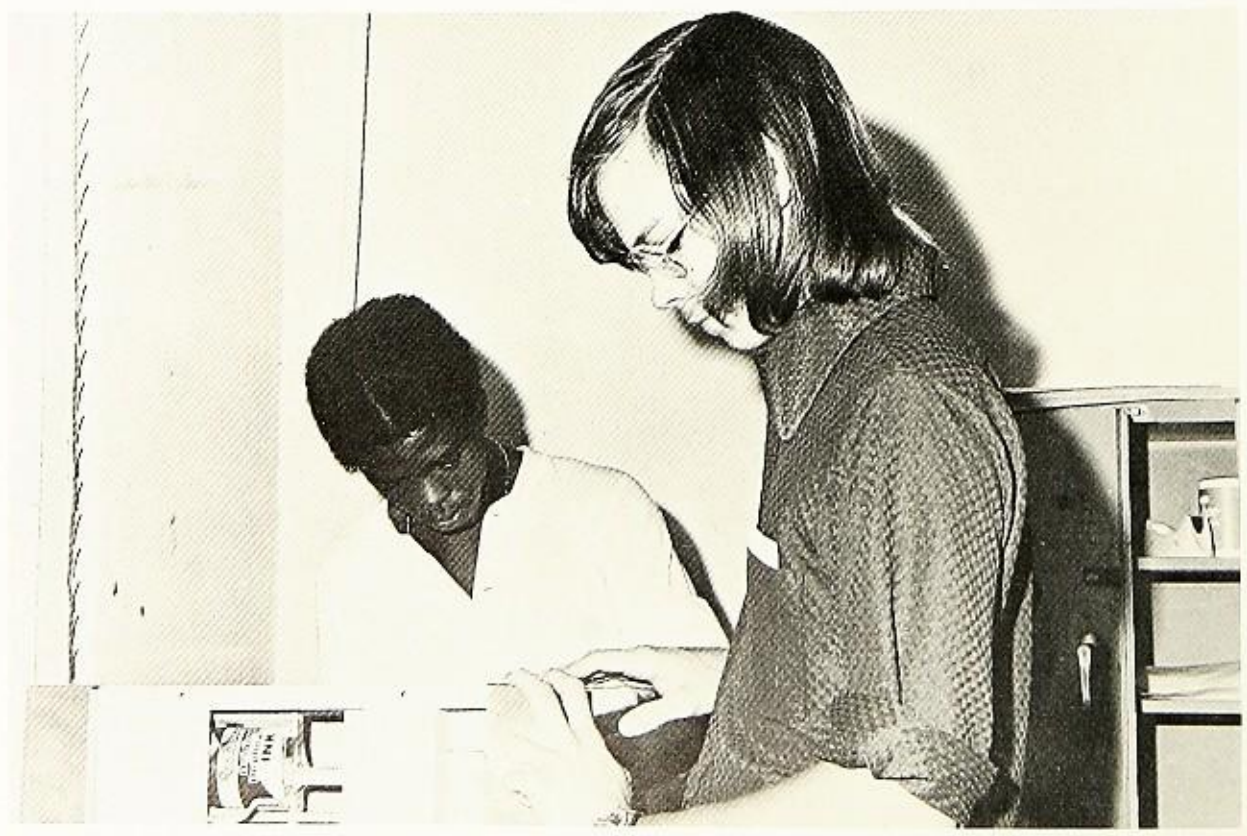


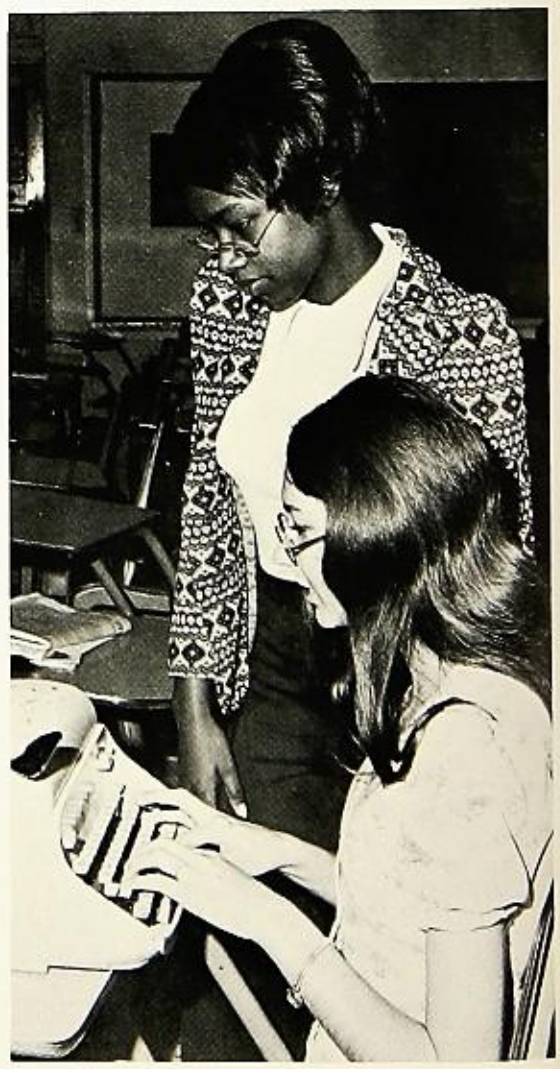


The Science Club visited Texas A&M and planted trees at Wyerhauser as a money raising project.

Tiger Rag



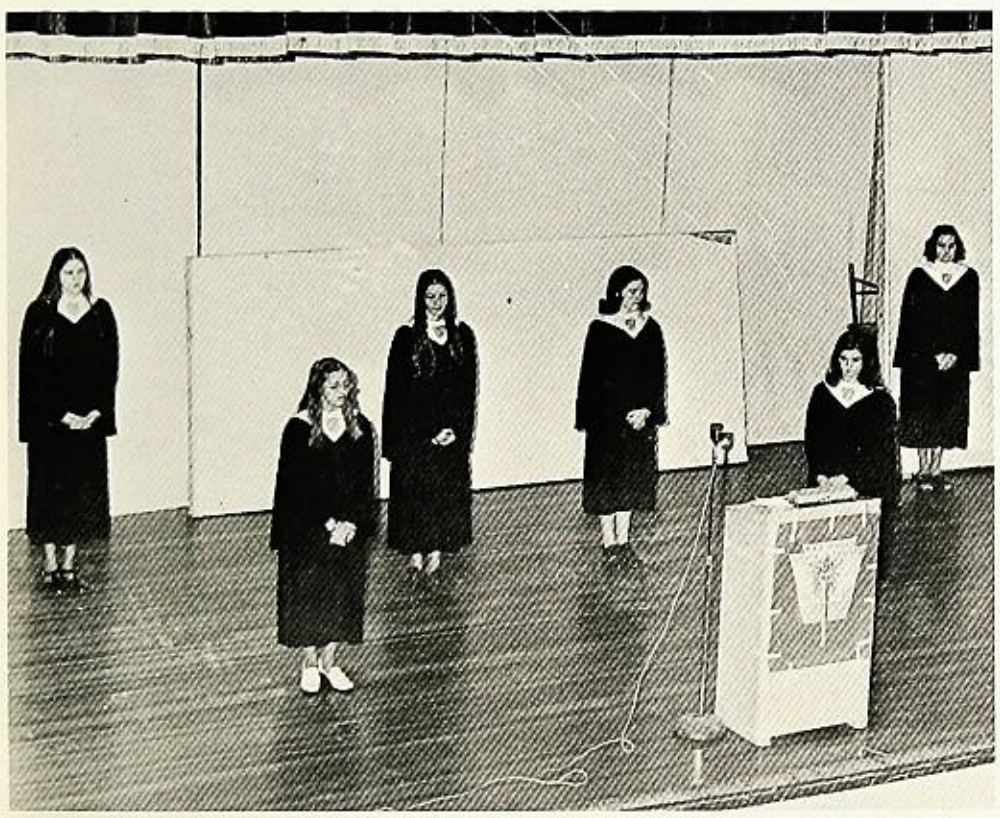


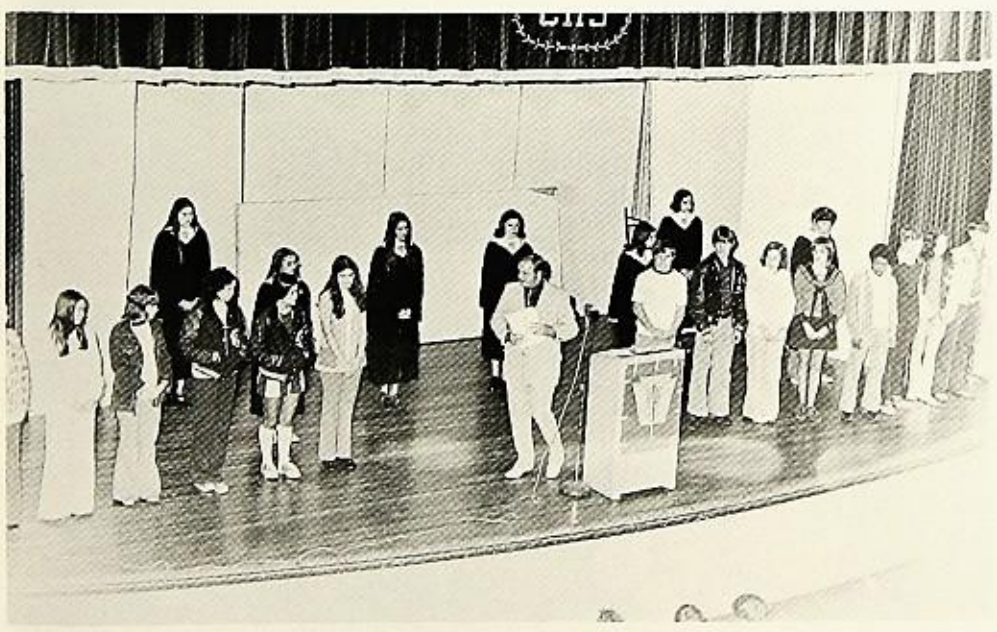


Karen and Gaylynn add the finishing touch before the paper is sent to Ricky and Robert to be printed.

Johnny's mother made favors for the Christmas meeting.

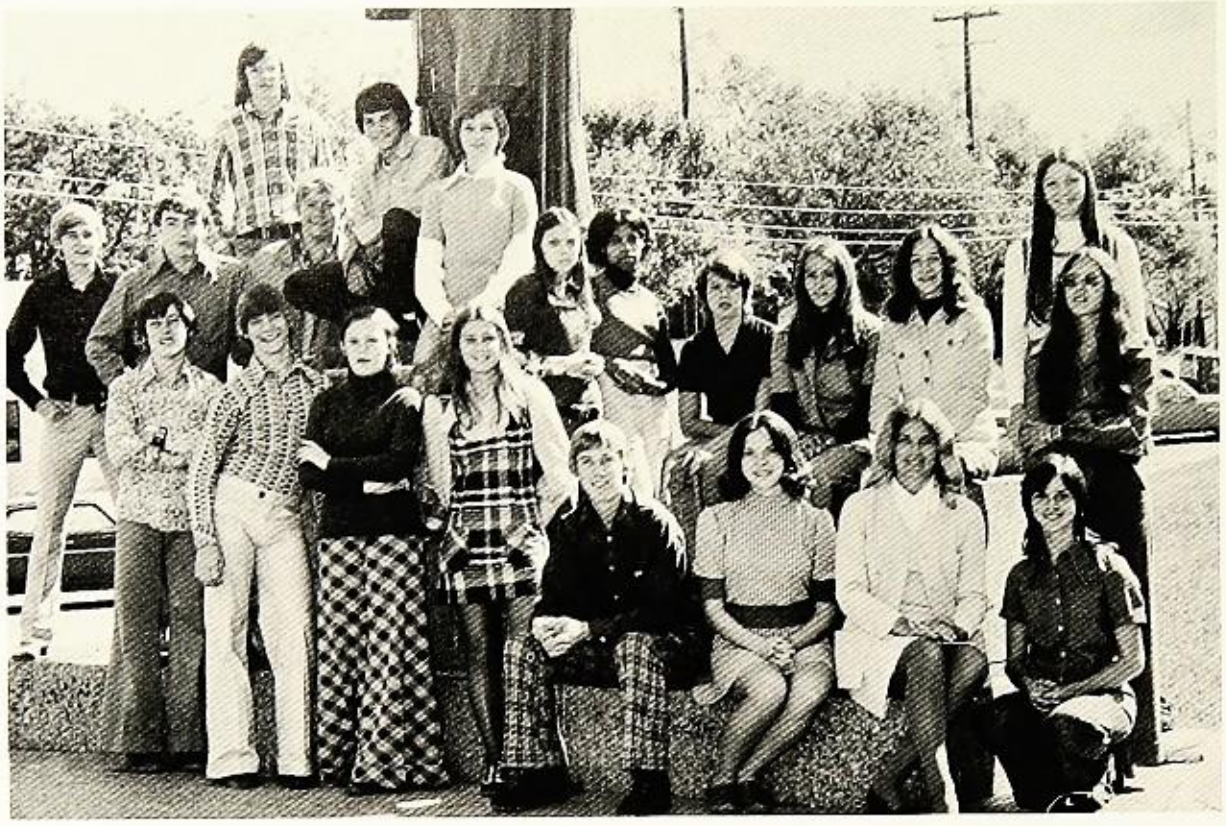
National Honor Society

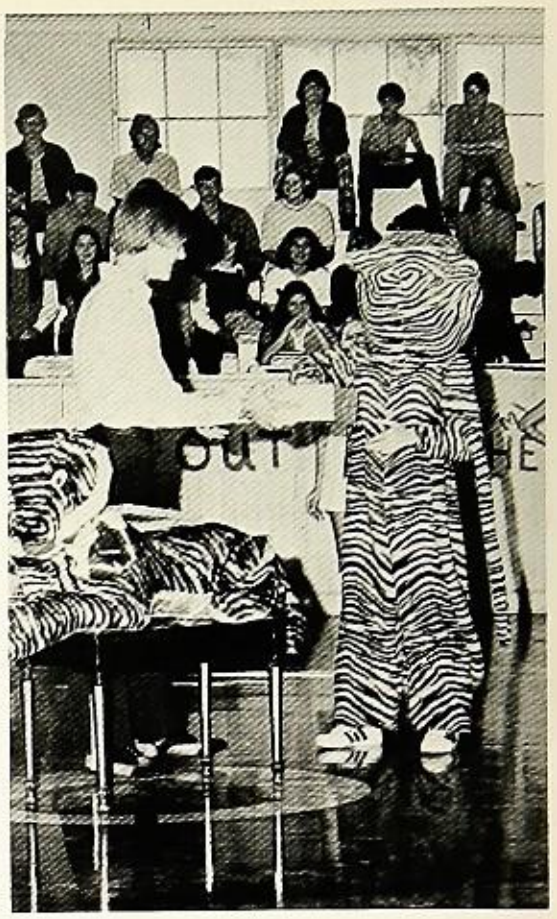




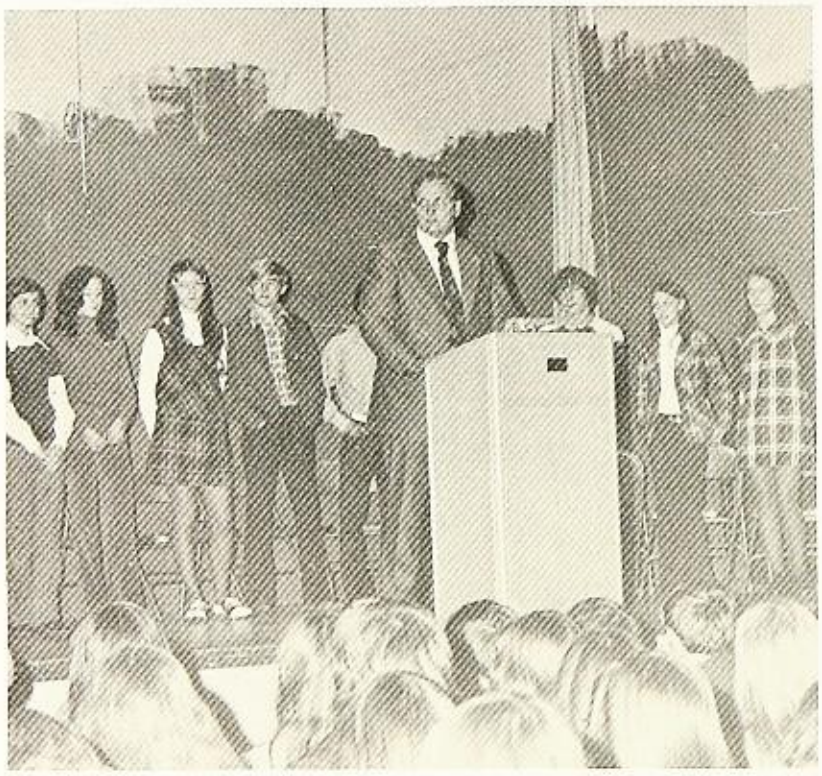
An impressive installation of new members was conducted by the Senior members of the National Honor Society.

Student Council





Tommy Trissell bought the lucky ticket and won the tiger.



Mr. Brantley installed the new Student Council members.

S. C. members helped decorate the Christmas tree. Each club gave an ornament to be used.

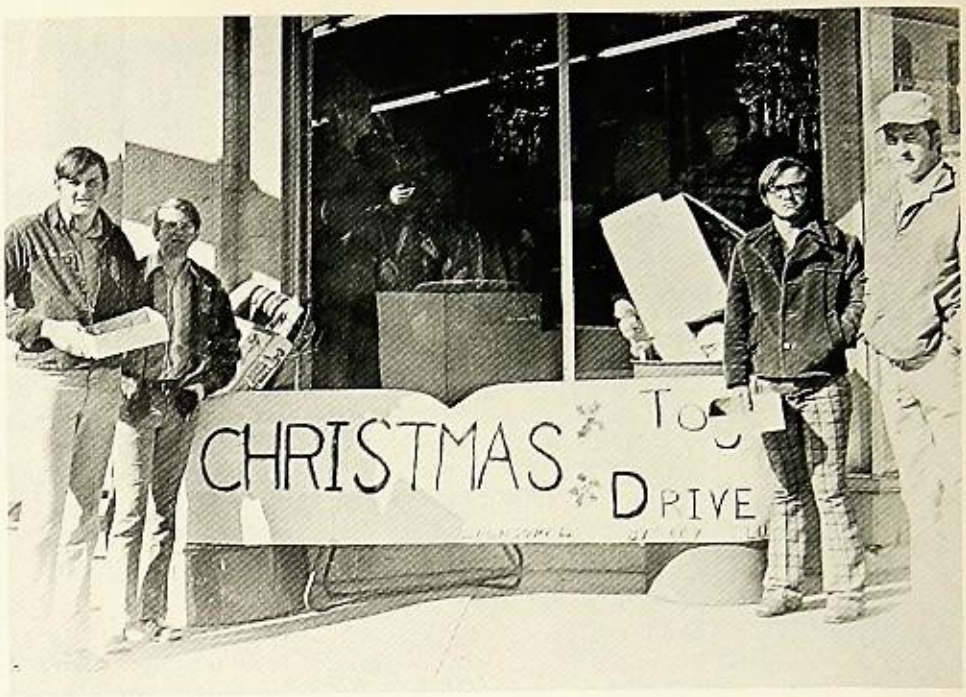
Future Teachers of America

Eight members attended State Convention in Dallas. The scrapbook received a 92 points out of a possible 100.

The District Meeting was in Gladewater. Kay, Beth, Janet and Brenda went as representatives.

Sandwich sales were one of the money raising projects of FTA.

Key Club



The Fall Training Conference for officers was held in Texarkana.

Key Club members collected money and toys for underprivileged children.
